In the matter of Lehman Blum a Bankrupt } In the District Court of the United States for the District of Maryland

To the Honorable Thomas J. Morris, Judge of the District Court of the United States for the District of Maryland

The petition of Lehman Blum, who has filed a petition in this Honorable Court to be adjudicated a Bankrupt, respectfully shows that he has just discovered that on the Eleventh day of January 1895 there was rendered a judgment against him and wife by default by Thomas C. Bailey, a Justice of the Peace of the State of Maryland in and for Baltimore City, and while your petitioner was in no way liable for the debt sued on in that case yet having neglected to appear at the trial, or to appeal from the judgment, it is now valid against him, but he did not know that fact when he filed his said petition, and now asks leave of the Court to amend his said petition and the list of his debts thereto annexed by adding thereto the name and residence of the said party who recovered the said judgment & the amount thereof. The Name of the party is Isaac Kesler, his residence is Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and the amount of the judgment is $99.22. And he prays the Court to pass an order permitting him to amend his said petition accordingly as aforesaid.
