ORDER ESTABLISHING REGISTRY OF ADMINISTRATIVE ORDERS

In order to properly document administrative orders entered by this Court that clarify or implement procedures, policies or practices affecting court business, as opposed to orders entered in individual cases, it is by the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Maryland, this 10th day of May, 2002,

ORDERED, That this Court hereby establishes a registry of all past and future administrative orders to be maintained by the Clerk of this Court; and it is further ORDERED, That each such administrative order shall be assigned a number beginning with the last two digits of the calendar year in which the order was entered and ending with a number in numerical sequence.
