UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF MARYLAND

FOREWORD

(December 2025)

These Rules are intended to supplement the Bankruptcy Code and the Federal Bankruptcy Rules to bring transparency and predictability to bankruptcy practice in our Court. The Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Bankruptcy Rules, other applicable federal rules, and the Maryland Attorneys' Rules of Professional Conduct and Attorney Trust Accounts continue to apply and govern all cases, matters, and proceedings in our Court. In addition, attorneys and parties must present adequate facts, evidence, and legal argument in support of their respective positions; nothing in these Rules alters the applicable legal standards. To the extent members of the bar or public believe future changes or revisions are warranted, they are encouraged to communicate their proposals to the Clerk of Court for consideration by the bench.

The December 1, 2025, amendments have "25.01" at the bottom of each page. This version of the Rules supersedes all prior versions (the amendments in redline are available through the Court's CM/ECF system under Miscellaneous Proceeding 16-90000). These Rules are effective as of December 1, 2025, and govern all matters and proceedings in bankruptcy cases thereafter commenced and all matters and proceedings in bankruptcy cases then pending on a going forward basis.

RULE 1001-1 SHORT TITLE; APPLICABILITY

(a) Citation. These Rules are known as the “Local Bankruptcy Rules,” and any citation referencing these Rules should be made as “Md. L. Bankr. R. _____.”

(b) Applicability. The Local Bankruptcy Rules, together with all active administrative orders of the Court, apply to all cases pending in the Court except as otherwise provided in these Rules. The Local Bankruptcy Rules supplement, but do not replace, the Federal Bankruptcy Rules and must be construed consistently with the Federal Bankruptcy Rules to secure the just, expeditious, and economical administration and determination of every case, matter, and proceeding governed by these Rules. All parties in interest, attorneys, and other professionals filing any case or filing any pleadings or papers or otherwise appearing in a matter or proceeding in a case in the Court are bound by the Federal Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Bankruptcy Rules. The Court may take any action consistent with these Rules without notice and a hearing except as otherwise provided in the Federal Bankruptcy Rules or the Local Bankruptcy Rules.

(c) Definitions. Certain words and terms used in these Local Bankruptcy Rules have the meanings given to them in Rule 9001-1.

(d) Sanctions. The Court, on its own initiative or on the motion of any party in interest, may impose sanctions for failure to comply with the Local Bankruptcy Rules, including the striking of papers filed with the Court, dismissal of matters or proceedings, dismissal or conversion of cases, or as may otherwise be appropriate under the circumstances.

RULE 1002-1 PETITION – GENERAL

- (a) Dismissal. The Court may dismiss the petition without a hearing, issue a show cause order for why the case should not be dismissed, or take other action if:

 - (3) the debtor does not file the master mailing matrix with the petition;
 - (4) a Chapter 11 debtor does not file the list of twenty (20) largest unsecured creditors with the petition;

(b) Election After Petition. If a debtor who qualifies under 11 U.S.C. § 1182 elects to proceed under Subchapter V of Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code after the debtor files a bankruptcy petition under Chapter 11, the Court grants a motion filed by the debtor to convert a pending case to one under Chapter 11, or the Court grants (or the debtor consents to) an involuntary petition against the debtor, the debtor must file an amended bankruptcy petition selecting the option to proceed under Subchapter V of Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.

(d) Notice of Amendment of Schedules in Chapter 9 and Chapter 11 Cases. Whenever the debtor or the trustee in a Chapter 9 or a Chapter 11 case amends the debtor's schedules to change the amount, nature, classification, or characterization of a debt owing to a creditor, the debtor or the trustee must, within fourteen (14) days of filing, transmit notice of the amendment to the creditor, which notice must conspicuously identify the claims being amended, and provide notice of the creditor's right to file a proof of claim by the later of: (1) the bar date (if any); or (2) either (A) thirty (30) days from the date of notice in a case proceeding under Subchapter V or (B) sixty (60) days from the date of the notice in all other cases in Chapter 9 and Chapter 11. The debtor or the trustee must file a certificate of service of the notice within seven (7) days after service.

RULE 1015-1 JOINT ADMINISTRATION/CONSOLIDATION

(a) Cases Involving Spouses. The estates of spouses filing a joint petition will be deemed consolidated under 11 U.S.C. § 302(b) unless otherwise ordered on the motion of a party in interest.

(b) All Other Cases. The Court may enter an order of joint administration, after consideration of appropriate factors, upon the filing by the debtors of a motion for joint administration pursuant to Federal Bankruptcy Rule 1015, supported by an affidavit, declaration, or verification, which establishes that the joint administration of two or more cases pending in the Court under Title 11 is warranted and will ease the administrative burden for the Court and the parties. The Court may reconsider an order of joint administration entered in accordance with this Rule upon motion of any party in interest at any time, and such order is for procedural purposes only and does not cause a substantive consolidation of the respective debtors' estates.

RULE 1017-1 DISMISSAL OF CASE

Upon the filing of a notice that states the debtor has not provided a copy of the federal income tax return to the trustee pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 521(e)(2)(A) and further states that the case may be dismissed unless the debtor requests a hearing or provides a copy of the tax return to the trustee, the Court may enter an order of dismissal after fourteen (14) days' notice to the debtor, any attorney to the debtor, and the United States Trustee.

PART II

RULE 2002-1 NOTICE TO CREDITORS AND OTHER INTERESTED PARTIES

(a) Content. All notices served in a bankruptcy case must contain sufficient information to enable a party in interest to make a reasonably well-informed decision whether to object to the action proposed in the notice. The notice must state: (1) the date by when objections must be filed; (2) the person upon whom objections must be served; (3) that the proposed action may be authorized without further order or notice if no timely objection is filed; (4) that the Court, in its discretion, may conduct a hearing or determine the matter without a hearing regardless of whether an objection is filed; (5) that an objection must state the facts and legal grounds on which the objection is based; and (6) the name of the party giving notice or its attorney, together with the address, telephone number, and email address of the party to be contacted if parties in interest have questions regarding the subject of the notice. A notice may not state that an objecting party is required to attend a Court hearing in support of any objection made.

(b) Certificate of Service. A party must file a certificate of service that complies with Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-4.

(c) Limitation of Certain Notices - Chapter 7, Chapter 12, and Chapter 13. A party required to give notice pursuant to Federal Bankruptcy Rule 2002(a) may limit notice as provided in that Rule.

(d) Limitation of Certain Notices - Chapter 11. In Chapter 11 cases, where official committees are appointed and the number of unsecured creditors exceeds thirty (30), notices of the actions described below may be limited to the debtor, the United States Trustee, the members of all official committees or committee's attorneys (if appointed), and to those creditors and equity security holders who file and serve on the attorney for the debtor a written request for notices of:

(1) the proposed use, sale, or lease of property of the estate other than in the ordinary course of business;

(2) the hearing on the approval of a compromise or settlement of a controversy other than the approval of an agreement pursuant to Federal Bankruptcy Rule 4001(d);

(3) a hearing on an application for compensation or reimbursement of expenses;
and

(4) such other notices as the Court orders.

(e) Voluntary Dismissal - Chapter 7 and 11. Notices of a motion by a debtor to dismiss a voluntary case under Chapter 7 or 11 must be sent to all parties in interest.

(f) Notice to Equity Security Holders. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the debtor in possession (or the trustee if applicable) is responsible for giving notices required by Federal Bankruptcy Rule 2002(d).

RULE 2004-1 EXAMINATIONS UNDER FEDERAL BANKRUPTCY RULE 2004

Examinations under Federal Bankruptcy Rule 2004 are governed by Local Bankruptcy Rule 7026-1 to the extent applicable.

RULE 2015-1 COMPENSATION BY DEBTOR IN NON-INDIVIDUAL CHAPTER 11

The debtor in possession must file a statement containing the following information within twenty-one (21) days after filing a petition in a non-individual Chapter 11 case:

(a) a statement specifying the duties and positions of the following (to the extent compensated):

(1) the partners of the partnership;

- (2) the officers and directors of the corporation;
 - (3) the members of the limited liability company; and
 - (4) any other insiders (as defined by 11 U.S.C. § 101) of any of the above;
- (b) the rate of compensation paid to each person identified in Local Bankruptcy Rule 2015-1(a) ninety (90) days prior to and at the time of the filing of the petition; and
- (c) the rate of compensation of each person identified in Local Bankruptcy Rule 2015-1(a) as of the time the statement is filed.

RULE 2016-1 COMPENSATION OF PROFESSIONALS

(a) Applications for Compensation by Professionals. Unless the Court orders otherwise, all professionals seeking compensation pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 327, 328, 330, and 331, including attorneys, accountants, examiners, investment bankers, financial advisors, real estate advisors, and Subchapter V trustees, must prepare and submit their applications for compensation in accordance with the Guidelines attached as Appendix D to these Rules.

(b) Disclosure of Compensation. An attorney representing a debtor in a case or in connection with a case must file a Federal Bankruptcy Rule 2016(b) disclosure statement with the petition. If an attorney commences representation of the debtor in a case or in connection with a case after the filing of the petition, such attorney must file the Federal Bankruptcy Rule 2016(b) disclosure statement at the time representation is commenced.

(c) Fee Arrangements in Individual Chapter 7 Cases. An attorney representing an individual debtor in a case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code who agrees with the debtor prepetition to accept the payment of attorney's fees for services rendered in connection with the bankruptcy case in whole or in part after the petition date must file a motion with the Court seeking approval of such fee arrangement at the same time that the attorney files the Disclosure of Compensation of Attorney for the Debtor under Federal Bankruptcy Rule 2016(b). Any such fee arrangement is enforceable only if, and to the extent, approved by the Court. In the motion, the attorney must:

(1) explain, among other things, the circumstances preventing the debtor from being able to pay the entirety of the fee prior to the petition date, the precise terms and conditions of the fee arrangement with the debtor, the nature of the services to be rendered postpetition that support the fee arrangement, and how the fee arrangement complies with applicable nonbankruptcy law; and

(2) certify that the debtor understands the terms and conditions of the fee arrangement and has provided informed written consent to the same.

RULE 2016-2 DISCLOSURE OF COMPENSATION OF PETITION PREPARERS

(a) Required Forms. A person who provided petition preparation services as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 110 must provide to the debtor a copy of the Federal Bankruptcy Rule 2016(c) disclosure statement (Official Form B2800) and the Bankruptcy Petition Preparer's Notice, Declaration, and Signature (Official Form B119) signed by the bankruptcy petition preparer for filing with the petition. The duty to sign and file Official Forms B2800 and B119 remains at all times with the bankruptcy petition preparer and, if the debtor does not file such forms, the bankruptcy petition preparer must sign and file Official Forms B2800 and B119 within fourteen (14) days after the petition date.

(b) Disclosures Concerning Fees. If the fees charged by the bankruptcy petition preparer exceed the fee amount set forth in subparagraph (c) below, the bankruptcy petition preparer must attach to Official Form B2800 a signed declaration providing notice to the debtor of this Rule and stating the rate for services, the tasks performed, the time spent on each task, and providing a short, plain statement justifying the excess fees.

(c) Presumption for Fees. For purposes of this Rule, a fee not exceeding $125.00 is presumed reasonable for bankruptcy petition preparation services.

RULE 2070-1 ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

Requests for the allowance or payment of administrative expenses (including applications for compensation and motions for direct payment) must be served in accordance with Federal Bankruptcy Rule 2002(a). Additional requirements for notice, the certificate of service, and the proposed order are governed by Local Bankruptcy Rules 2002-1(a), 9013-4, and 9013-3, respectively.

RULE 2071-1 NOTICE TO OTHER COURTS WITH PENDING ACTIONS

The debtor or other party filing a bankruptcy case must promptly:

(a) file Local Bankruptcy Form A with the clerk of any court where the debtor is a party to any judicial, administrative, or other action or proceeding and serve that Local Bankruptcy Form A on all parties of record in that action or proceeding; and

(b) serve Local Bankruptcy Form A on all parties involved in a non-judicial foreclosure.

RULE 2072-1 ACCESS TO INFORMATION IN CHAPTER 11 CASES

Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, a committee appointed under 11 U.S.C. § 1102 or a trustee appointed in a Subchapter V case is not required to provide access to information to the extent that such information has been reasonably designated by the party providing such information as non-public, proprietary, privileged, work product, or otherwise confidential.

PART III

RULE 3002-1 TIME FOR FILING CERTAIN PROOFS OF CLAIM

(a) Rejected Executory Contracts and Leases. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, any proof of claim arising pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(g) from the rejection of an executory contract or unexpired lease must be filed on or before the latest of:

(1) the time for filing a proof of claim pursuant to Federal Bankruptcy Rule 3002(c) or, for Chapter 11 cases, Local Bankruptcy Rule 3003-1;

(2) thirty (30) days after the entry of the order compelling or approving the rejection of the contract or lease; and

(3) thirty (30) days after the effective date of the rejection of the contract or lease.

(b) Claims Following Foreclosure, Repossession, or Surrender of Collateral. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court or provided in a confirmed plan, an amended proof of claim asserting an unsecured deficiency claim for real property must be filed within one hundred eighty (180) days after entry of the order granting relief from the automatic stay or surrender of the property by the debtor or the trustee, whichever occurs earlier; and an amended proof of claim asserting an unsecured deficiency claim for personal property must be filed within sixty (60) days after entry of the order granting relief from the automatic stay or surrender of the property by the debtor or the trustee, whichever occurs earlier. Absent compliance with this Rule, any unsecured deficiency claim arising under this paragraph will be deemed disallowed unless the Court orders otherwise.

RULE 3002-2 PROOFS OF CLAIM IN JOINT BANKRUPTCY CASES

Proof of claim forms filed in joint bankruptcy cases must include both debtors' names in the caption and clearly state whether the claim is against one or both debtors in the case. Including the case caption on the proof of claim form is a matter of procedure only and does not convert an otherwise individual claim against one debtor into a joint claim against both debtors.

RULE 3003-1 TIME FOR FILING PROOFS OF CLAIM IN CHAPTER 11 CASES

Except as provided in 11 U.S.C. § 502(b)(9), in a Chapter 11 case, other than a case under Subchapter V, a proof of claim is timely filed if it is filed not later than ninety (90) days after the first date set for the meeting of creditors under 11 U.S.C. § 341(a), unless a different date is fixed by the Court. Except as provided in 11 U.S.C. § 502(b)(9), in a case under Subchapter V, a proof of claim is timely filed if it is filed not later than seventy (70) days after entry of the order for relief, unless a different date is fixed by the Court.

RULE 3007-1 CLAIMS -- OBJECTIONS

An objection to a proof of claim must conspicuously state that:

(a) within thirty (30) days after the date on the certificate of service of the objection, the claimant may file and serve a response, together with any documents and other evidence the claimant wishes to attach in support of its claim, unless the claimant wishes to rely solely upon the proof of claim;

(b) a party in interest may request a hearing that will be held at the Court's discretion;

and

(c) the Court may overrule the objection or set a hearing on the objection if the objection fails to include adequate support for the requested relief, even if a response is not filed.

RULE 3011-1 UNCLAIMED FUNDS HELD IN COURT REGISTRY

An application for payment of unclaimed funds pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2042 must be submitted in accordance with the Instructions for Filing Application for Payment of Unclaimed Funds available on the Court’s website (the “Instructions”). The application must be served on the United States Attorney for the District of Maryland, any trustee serving currently in, or serving at dismissal or closure of, the case, and the debtor. Failure to submit an application with all supporting documentation that complies with the Instructions and has been properly served as set forth in this Rule may result in denial of the application.

RULE 3011-2 UNCLAIMED AND UNDISTRIBUTED FUNDS IN LIQUIDATING CHAPTER 11 CASES

(a) Unclaimed Funds. A Chapter 11 liquidating plan may provide that unclaimed funds may be redistributed to other creditors or administrative claimants or donated to a not-for-profit, non-religious organization identified in the plan or disclosure statement accompanying the plan.

(b) Undistributable Funds. A Chapter 11 liquidating plan may provide that any undistributable funds, if applicable or practicable, may be redistributed to other creditors or administrative claimants or donated to a not for profit, non-religious organization identified in the plan or disclosure statement accompanying the plan.

(1) Undistributable funds are any funds other than unclaimed funds, including funds that cannot be disbursed because: (A) a creditor has affirmatively rejected a distribution; (B) the administrative costs of distribution effectively interfere with distribution; or (C) all creditors, including administrative claimants, have been paid in full and there is no one that has a right to the funds.

(2) If a Chapter 11 liquidating plan does not provide for the disposition of undistributable funds and there are any such funds at the time of final distribution under the plan, the disbursing agent must file a motion, upon notice and hearing, proposing disposition of such funds, including as proposed in this Rule or otherwise.

RULE 3012-1 VALUATION OF COLLATERAL AND/OR AVOIDANCE OF LIENS ON PROPERTY UNDER 11 U.S.C. § 506 BY MOTION - CHAPTER 13 ONLY

(a) Form. The caption and notice of a motion to value collateral and avoid a security interest under 11 U.S.C. § 506 must be in the form of Local Bankruptcy Form K, and the proposed order for such motion must be in the form of Local Bankruptcy Form L. The caption and notice of a motion to avoid a security interest under 11 U.S.C. § 506 must be in the form of Local Bankruptcy Form G, and the proposed order for such motion must be in the form of Local Bankruptcy Form H. The motion must also include the name, address, nature of ownership (e.g., tenancy in common, tenancy by the entirety, etc.) of any non-debtor owner of property, and adequate factual and legal support for the requested relief. If a debtor proceeds under this Rule, the debtor must so state in the plan. If a debtor elects instead to seek to value collateral or avoid a lien on such property by a provision in the debtor's plan, Local Bankruptcy Rule 3015-1(c) applies.

(b) Service of Motion and Notice of Hearing.

(1) The movant must select a hearing date for this type of motion from the Court Hearing Scheduler Program, and such date must be more than forty-nine (49) days after the date of service. The notice of the motion must state the hearing date and time.

(2) The movant must serve a copy of the motion under this Rule on the respondent and any non-debtor co-owner in the manner required by Federal Bankruptcy Rules 9014, 7004, and 3007. Additional requirements for the notice, the certificate of service, and the proposed order are governed by Local Bankruptcy Rules 2002-1(a), 9013-4, and 9013-3, respectively.

(c) Response to Motion. The Court Hearing Scheduler Program will compute the date that an objection is due, and such objection deadline must be included in the hearing notice. If no timely response is filed, the Court may rule on the motion without further notice or a hearing as set forth in Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-1(d).

RULE 3015-1 CHAPTER 13 PLANS - FORM AND SERVICE

(a) Form. A Chapter 13 plan must conform to Local Bankruptcy Form M. All Chapter 13 plans must be signed by the debtor and are subject to Local Bankruptcy Rule 9011-2(b).

(b) Service. Along with the original plan and any amended or modified plan, the debtor must file a Certificate of Service using Local Bankruptcy Form M-1.

(1) The Clerk will mail the original plan to all creditors and parties in interest as listed on the debtor's mailing matrix if the plan is filed with the original petition.

(2) If, after filing the original petition, the debtor files an original plan, or an amended plan that does anything other than increase the amount payable under the plan, the debtor must mail a copy of the plan to each creditor and the Chapter 13 trustee (unless such creditor or trustee is served by CM/ECF).

(3) In addition to the mailing required under sections (1) and (2), if the debtor seeks through a provision in the plan (and not by separate motion) to avoid any lien or value any collateral, the debtor must serve the plan on the holder of the lien or secured claim sought to be valued or avoided, and on any non-debtor owner of the collateral, in the manner required by Federal Bankruptcy Rules 9014, 7004, and 3007.

(c) Valuation or Lien Avoidance Under Plan. In the event the debtor seeks to value collateral or avoid liens pursuant to a provision in the plan, the debtor must file with the plan evidence of the collateral's value; evidence of the existence of any superior lien; a statement setting forth any exemption claimed; and the name, address, and nature of ownership of any non-debtor owner of the property. If the lienholder has not filed a proof of claim, the debtor must also separately file evidence of the amount of the debt secured by the collateral. If no proof of claim has been filed by the holders of claims secured by senior interests in the property, the debtor must file evidence of the amount of the claims so secured. Such evidence must be filed as a supplement to the plan as a separate docket entry but need not be mailed to all creditors pursuant to section (b)(1) or (2) of this Rule. However, it must be served pursuant to section (b)(3) of this Rule.

RULE 3015-2 CHAPTER 13 - CONFIRMATION

(a) Hearing Attendance. The debtor and the debtor's attorney must attend all scheduled confirmation hearings, unless excused by the Chapter 13 trustee or the Court.

(b) Hearing Date. Confirmation hearings must be set not less than thirty-five (35) days after filing of a plan. Objections to the plan must be filed and copies served on the Chapter served on the creditors identified as being paid in the manner provided for service of a summons and complaint by Federal Bankruptcy Rule 7004 and if a proof of claim has been filed, in care of the claimant at the name and address where notices should be sent as shown on the proof of claim.

(b) Objections. Objections to the accuracy of the affidavit must be filed no later than seven (7) days after the filing and service of the affidavit. Unless a timely objection to the affidavit is filed, the Court may presume the information in the affidavit is accurate.

RULE 3015-4 CHAPTER 13 – WAGE ORDERS

(a) Proposed Post-Confirmation Wage Orders by Trustee. The Chapter 13 trustee may submit a proposed order directing the debtor’s employer to make payments directly to the Chapter 13 trustee on account of the debtor’s payment obligations under the Chapter 13 plan (a “Wage Order”). The Chapter 13 trustee may submit a proposed Wage Order at the time of, or subsequent to, confirmation of the debtor’s Chapter 13 plan, and the Court may enter the Wage Order without notice or a hearing.

(b) Service of Motion and Notice of Hearing.

(1) The movant must select a hearing date for this type of motion from the Court Hearing Scheduler Program, and such date must be more than thirty-three (33) but less than sixty (60) days after the date of service. The notice of the motion must state the hearing date and time.

(2) The movant must serve a copy of the motion to modify Chapter 13 plan after confirmation and proposed modified Chapter 13 plan on the debtor, the trustee, and all creditors who have filed claims in the manner required by Federal Bankruptcy Rules 2002(a)(5) and 3015(h) and Local Bankruptcy Rule 2002-1, together with a hearing notice conforming to Local Bankruptcy Form M-2. Any such motion must also comply with Local Rule 3012-1, to the extent applicable. Additional requirements for the notice, the certificate of service, and the proposed order are governed by Local Bankruptcy Rules 2002-1(a), 9013-4, and 9013-3, respectively.

(c) Response to Motion. The Court Hearing Scheduler Program will compute the date that an objection is due, and such objection deadline must be included in the hearing notice. If no timely response is filed, the Court may rule on the motion without further notice or a hearing as set forth in Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-1(d).

RULE 3016-1 SERVICE OF CHAPTER 11 PLAN AND/OR DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, a plan proponent must serve the Chapter 11 plan and/or disclosure statement on a party in interest who filed a proof of claim in the manner required by Federal Bankruptcy Rule 3007(a)(2).

The confirmation order may also include a post-confirmation reporting requirement.

In a case involving a non-consensual plan confirmed under 11 U.S.C. § 1191(b), the Court will issue a discharge order as appropriate under 11 U.S.C. § 1192 after the debtor certifies that the debtor has completed all plan payments and requests entry of an order of discharge.

(1) Notice of Effective Date. Within fourteen (14) days after a confirmed Chapter 11 plan becomes effective, the debtor or plan administrator must file with the Court and serve on the United States Trustee and all parties in interest (including any trustee appointed in the case) notice of the occurrence of the plan's effective date.

The motion’s caption must be in the form of Local Bankruptcy Form B, and in a Chapter 7 case, the trustee must be listed as a respondent. (2) Prospective Relief. Any motion for relief from stay that includes a request for the imposition of an equitable servitude, or any other prospective relief that would limit a stay arising under 11 U.S.C. § 362(a), must be titled and identified on CM/ECF in a manner that conspicuously so states.

(3) Proposed Order. Any proposed order submitted by an attorney, including any order consented to by adverse parties, must be titled in a manner that conspicuously states the nature of the relief granted consistent with (a)(1) and (2) above and otherwise complies with Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-3.

(c) Response to Motion for Relief from Stay.

(1) Time. The Court Hearing Scheduler Program will compute the date that an objection is due, and such objection deadline must be included in the hearing notice. If no timely response is filed, the Court may rule on the motion without further notice or a hearing as set forth in Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-1(d).

(2) Form. The caption of the response must be the same as the form for the caption of the motion as set out in paragraph (a) above.

(3) Pleading. A response must include detailed answers to each numbered paragraph of the motion, in conformity with the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(b) and (d). All defenses to the motion must be stated in the response.

(4) Response by Standing Chapter 12 and 13 Trustees. Standing Chapter 12 and Chapter 13 trustees are served for informational purposes and are not required to respond to motions for relief from stay.

(d) Requirements Under 11 U.S.C. § 362(e).

(1) Waiver. If the movant notices a hearing date more than thirty (30) days after the date of the filing of the motion, or consents to a continuance, the movant is deemed to have consented to the inapplicability of 11 U.S.C. § 362(e) through the day of the hearing on the motion for relief from stay.

(2) Commencement of Measuring Period. A request for relief under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d) is complete to commence the thirty (30) day measuring period under 11 U.S.C. § 362(e) only when filed and noticed in compliance with this Rule.

(e) Deadline for Exhibits. In cases under Chapter 11, exhibits must be filed in accordance with Local Bankruptcy Rule 7016-1(c).

(f) Certain Appraisals. If the debtor is an individual in a case under Chapter 7, 12, or 13, and the parties contest the value of the collateral subject to a motion for relief from stay, then the respondent may make a written request to the movant's attorney (or if no attorney, to the movant) requesting a copy of the movant's appraisal of the collateral. If the movant has obtained an appraisal and intends to place it into evidence, the movant must supply a copy of same to the respondent within two (2) business days of said written request. If the movant did not have an appraisal at the time of the request which was intended to be placed into evidence, but subsequently obtains such an appraisal, the movant must provide a copy of said appraisal to the respondent which made the request upon the earlier of (a) two (2) business days after obtaining same or (b) two (2) business days prior to the hearing.

(g) Conference Required. If the motion for relief from stay is opposed, the attorneys for the parties, or the parties if not represented by an attorney, must confer in person, telephonically, or by videoconference with respect to the issues raised by the motion at least three

(3) business days prior to the scheduled hearing for the purpose of determining whether a consensual order may be entered and/or stipulating to relevant facts, such as the value of the property and the extent and validity of any security instrument. The parties' failure to comply with this Rule may result in the Court denying any request for a continuance of the hearing on the motion for relief from stay submitted less than two (2) business days before the hearing date.

RULE 4001-2 AUTOMATIC STAY - POST-FILING ARREARS

Where an issue presented by a motion for relief from stay is the debtor's failure to make payments that became due after the filing of the bankruptcy case, the moving party must attach to the motion a history of payments received postpetition or state in the motion that no such payments have been received. If the movant fails to comply with this Rule, the Court may exclude from evidence any documents or testimony in support of the movant's argument that it is not adequately protected.

RULE 4001-3 ACTION FOLLOWING FORECLOSURE, REPOSSESSION, OR SURRENDER OF COLLATERAL

(a) Required Action. A party obtaining relief from the automatic stay and thereafter consummating a foreclosure sale on real property in Maryland must:

- (1) provide a copy of the report of sale and all auditor's reports to any bankruptcy trustee appointed in the case; and
- (2) notify the auditor of the name and address of the bankruptcy trustee.

If the real property is located in another jurisdiction, similar notices must be provided consistent with the foreclosure procedures of that jurisdiction.

(b) Proof of Claim. Any proof of claim relating to a claim arising after the foreclosure, repossession, or surrender of real or personal property must be filed in accordance with Local Bankruptcy Rule 3002-1.

RULE 4001-4 OBTAINING CREDIT, REFINANCING, AND LOAN MODIFICATIONS

(a) Service of Motion and Notice of Hearing.

(1) The movant must select a hearing date for this type of motion from the Court Hearing Scheduler Program, and such date must be more than fourteen (14) days after the date of service.

(2) The notice of the motion must state the hearing date and time. The notice must also include a description of the essential terms of the proposed credit, including the amount, the interest rate, the lender's identity, the collateral pledged therefor, the repayment terms, the costs therefor, and the proposed use of the proceeds.

(3) The movant must serve a copy of the motion under this Rule on the respondent and any non-debtor co-obligor in the manner required by Federal Bankruptcy Rules 9014, 7004, and 3007. Additional requirements for the notice, the certificate of service, and the proposed order are governed by Local Bankruptcy Rules 2002-1(a), 9013-4, and 9013-3, respectively.

(b) Notice in Chapter 13 Cases. In a Chapter 13 case, the notice must be served on the creditors included on the list filed under Federal Bankruptcy Rule 1007(a), and on any other entity that the Court directs, notwithstanding any limitations set forth in Federal Bankruptcy Rule 2002 and/or Local Bankruptcy Rule 2002-1.

(c) Response to Motion. The Court Hearing Scheduler Program will compute the date that an objection is due, and such objection deadline must be included in the hearing notice. If no timely response is filed, the Court may rule on the motion without further notice or a hearing as set forth in Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-1(d).

RULE 4001-5 REQUIREMENTS FOR CASH COLLATERAL AND FINANCING MOTIONS AND ORDERS

(a) Motions. Except as provided herein and elsewhere in these Local Bankruptcy Rules, all cash collateral and financing requests under 11 U.S.C. §§ 363 and 364 must be brought by motion filed under Federal Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 4001 and 9014.

(1) Special Provisions to be Highlighted. All cash collateral and financing motions must recite whether the proposed form of order and/or underlying cash collateral stipulation or loan agreement contains any provision of the type described below; identify the location of any such provision in the proposed form of order, cash collateral stipulation, and/or loan agreement; and state the justification for the inclusion of such provision:

(A) Provisions that grant cross-collateralization protection (other than replacement liens or other adequate protection) to the prepetition secured creditors (i.e., clauses that secure prepetition debt by postpetition assets in which the secured creditor would not otherwise have a security interest by virtue of its prepetition security agreement or applicable law);

(B) Provisions that bind the estate or other parties in interest with respect to the validity, perfection, or amount of the secured creditor's prepetition lien or the waiver of claims against the secured creditor without first giving parties in interest at least seventy-five (75) days from the entry of the order and the creditors' committee, if formed, at least sixty (60) days from the date of its formation to investigate such matters;

(C) Provisions that seek to waive, without notice, whatever rights the estate may have under 11 U.S.C. § 506(c);

(D) Provisions that immediately grant to the prepetition secured creditor liens on the debtor's claims and causes of action arising under 11 U.S.C. §§ 544, 545, 547, 548 and 549;

(E) "Roll up" provisions that deem prepetition secured debt to be postpetition debt or that use postpetition loans from a prepetition secured creditor to pay part or all of that secured creditor's prepetition debt, other than as provided in 11 U.S.C. § 552(b);

(F) Provisions that provide treatment for the professionals retained by a committee appointed by the United States Trustee different from those professionals retained by the debtor with respect to a professional fee carve-out, and provisions that limit the committee's attorney's use of the carve-out;

(G) Provisions that prime any secured lien without the consent of that lienor; and

(H) Provisions that grant a secured creditor any relief from the automatic stay, whether by terminating, modifying, or conditioning the stay, without further order of the Court;

(2) All cash collateral and financing motions must also:

(A) provide a summary of the essential terms of the proposed use of cash collateral and/or financing (e.g., the maximum borrowing available on a final basis, the interim borrowing limit, borrowing conditions, interest rate, maturity, events of default, use of funds limitations, and protections afforded under 11 U.S.C. §§ 363 and 364);

(B) state whether there is an insider relationship between the debtor and the creditor whose cash collateral is to be used or who proposes to provide postpetition financing and, if so, describe the nature of the relationship;

(C) include a cash flow projection for any interim period in which cash collateral and/or postpetition financing is sought that includes both projected revenue and a line-item proposed budget for the use of the funds;

(D) describe and state the value of the collateral to be pledged in connection with the use of cash collateral and/or postpetition financing; and

(E) identify each party claiming to have an interest in the collateral to be pledged in connection with the use of cash collateral and/or postpetition financing and estimate the amount each such party is owed as of the date the petition was filed (including, if known, any accrued unpaid interest, costs, or fees as provided in any prepetition agreements).

(3) A proposed order approving cross-collateralization or a rollup must include language that reserves the right of the Court to unwind, after notice and hearing, the postpetition protection provided to the prepetition lender or the pay down of the prepetition debt, whichever is applicable, in the event that there is a timely and successful challenge to the validity, enforceability, extent, perfection, or priority of the prepetition lender's claims or liens, or a determination that the prepetition debt was undersecured as of the petition date, and the cross-collateralization or rollup unduly advantaged the lender.

(b) Interim Relief. When financing motions are filed with the Court on or shortly after the petition date, the Court may grant interim relief pending review by parties in interest of such debtor in possession financing arrangement. Such interim relief must be only what is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the estate pending a final hearing.

RULE 4001-6 POSTPETITION PAYMENT NOTICES AND ACCOUNT ACCESS

Creditors and lessors may continue to provide customary notices and correspondence (including monthly statements, payment coupons, escrow adjustment analyses, and tax statements) to debtors regarding postpetition account activity both electronically and by mail. Further, to the extent available and particularly where consistent with the parties' prepetition practices, creditors and lessors may allow debtors to access information and make postpetition payments through electronic, telephonic, and/or on-line means. The good faith actions of creditors or lessors pursuant to this Rule do not constitute a violation of the automatic stay.

RULE 4001-7 POSTPETITION APPLICATIONS TO MODIFY LOAN

A debtor may submit an application for a loan modification to a creditor postpetition, and a creditor may consider such application postpetition, without first obtaining relief from the automatic stay. The documents, correspondence, and other communication between the debtor and the creditor regarding a postpetition application for a loan modification are subject to Local Bankruptcy Rule 4001-6.

RULE 4003-1 NOTICE OF OBJECTION TO CLAIM OF EXEMPTIONS

An objection to the list of property claimed as exempt under 11 U.S.C. § 522 must contain clear notice that: (a) any opposition to the objection must be filed and served within twenty-eight (28) days after the objection was served; and (b) the Court may rule upon the objection and any response thereto without a hearing.

RULE 4003-2 LIEN AVOIDANCE UNDER 11 U.S.C. § 522(f)

(a) Form. The caption and notice of a motion to avoid a security interest under 11 U.S.C. § 522 must be in a form substantially similar to Local Bankruptcy Form C. The motion must also include the name, address, and nature of ownership (e.g., tenancy in common, tenancy by the entirety, etc.) of any non-debtor owner of property. If a debtor proceeds under this Rule in a Chapter 13 case, the debtor must so state in the plan. If a debtor elects instead to seek to avoid a lien on such real property by a provision in the debtor's plan, Local Bankruptcy Rule 3015-1(c) applies. A motion to avoid a lien under 11 U.S.C. § 522(f) may seek only to avoid a single lien or multiple liens held by the same creditor.

(b) Service of Motion and Notice of Hearing.

(1) The movant must select a hearing date for this type of motion from the Court Hearing Scheduler Program, and such date must be more than forty-nine (49) days after the date of service. The notice of the motion must state the hearing date and time.

(2) The movant must serve a copy of the motion under this Rule on the respondent, any trustee, and any non-debtor owner in the manner required by Federal Bankruptcy Rules 9014, 7004, and 3007. Additional requirements for the notice, the certificate of service, and the proposed order are governed by Local Bankruptcy Rules 2002-1(a), 9013-4, and 9013-3, respectively.

(c) Response to Motion. The Court Hearing Scheduler Program will compute the date that an objection is due, and such objection deadline must be included in the hearing notice. If no timely response is filed, the Court may rule on the motion without further notice or a hearing as set forth in Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-1(d).

RULE 4004-1 DISCHARGE IN CHAPTER 12 AND 13 CASES

In Chapter 12 and 13 cases, the debtor's Affidavit Requesting Discharge, Local Bankruptcy Form P, must be filed and served on the trustee and all creditors no later than ninety (90) days after the trustee files the notice of completion of plan payments. The failure to timely file this affidavit may result in the case being closed without a discharge.

PART V

RULE 5001-1 COURT ADMINISTRATION - LAPSE IN APPROPRIATIONS AND/OR DISRUPTION IN SERVICE

This Rule will become effective only when Congress fails to enact legislation to fund operations of the United States Courts. The Anti-Deficiency Act, 31 U.S.C. § 1515, limits permissible government activities in the event of such a failure to those otherwise “authorized by law” or those needed to meet “cases of emergency involving the safety of human life or the protections of property.”

This Court is directly involved in the judicial process and under the Constitution and laws of the United States, it is always open to exercise the judicial power of the United States as a unit of the District Court. Thus, the Court must continue, even in the absence of funding by Congress, to receive new cases and to hear and dispose of pending cases. Activities will, however, be limited as nearly as practical to those functions necessary and essential to continue the administration of pending cases. The Court will advise the United States Marshals Service and the General Services Administration of the level of building and security services necessary to maintain such Court operations.

The Court finds that judges’ staffs and the Clerk and the Clerk’s staff are persons essential to the continuation of Court operations.

RULE 5001-2 CLERK - OFFICE LOCATION/HOURS

(a) Office Hours. The office hours of the Clerk in the Greenbelt and Baltimore Divisions are from 8:45 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. on all days, except Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays observed by the District Court.

(b) After-Hours Night Box. A night box is located in the lobby of each of the United States Courthouses in Baltimore and in Greenbelt. Bankruptcy petitions, pleadings, and other papers may be placed in the night box for filing after regular office hours, Monday through Friday (except holidays) and until the courthouse is closed to the public or midnight, whichever is earlier. The hours during which each night box is accessible are available on the Court’s website. The night box is intended as an after-hours convenience, and it is not intended as an alternative for filing papers during regular office hours. All documents must be “date and time stamped” prior to being deposited in the secure night box.

(c) After-Hours Filing. During periods outside the regular office hours of the Clerk’s Office and when the night box is not available, arrangements may be made in advance for time sensitive filings by contacting a designated Court representative. The contact information of the designated Court representatives is available on the Court’s website, on each night box, and on notice boards in the divisional offices.

(d) Deadlines Are Not Extended. The availability of the night box and after-hours filing do NOT extend the “Last Day” as defined by Federal Bankruptcy Rule 9006(a)(4), which Last Day ends for filing, other than electronic filing, at 4:00 p.m. when the Clerk’s Offices close.

(e) Division of Business. The division of business for the Court is as follows:

(1) Cases originating in Allegany, Calvert, Charles, Frederick, Garrett, Montgomery, Prince George’s, St. Mary’s, and Washington Counties are assigned to the Greenbelt Divisional Office, 300 United States Courthouse, 6500 Cherrywood Lane, Suite 300, Greenbelt, Maryland 20770, (301) 344-8018.

A debtor in a case originating from any of these counties may request by motion that all future Court hearings, excluding meetings of creditors under 11 U.S.C. § 341, be conducted at the United States Courthouse in Baltimore.

(4) All Court hearings in cases under Chapter 11 originating in Caroline, Dorchester, Kent, Queen Anne's, Somerset, Talbot, Wicomico, and Worcester Counties, including related adversary proceedings, will be scheduled in the United States Courthouse,

The Court will consider the convenience of the parties in selecting the venue. A debtor in a case originating from any of these counties may request by motion that some or all Court hearings be conducted at one of these two locations.

RULE 5005-1 FILING BY ELECTRONIC MEANS

The Court will accept for filing documents submitted, signed, or verified by electronic means that comply with the Court's Electronic Case Filing Procedures (Appendix H).

RULE 5011-1 WITHDRAWAL OF REFERENCE

A motion for withdrawal of reference is governed by Local Bankruptcy Rule 405.2 of the District Court. See Appendix B. All briefing will be governed by the rules of the District Court, including those rules governing timing, unless otherwise ordered by the District Court.

RULE 5070-1 PHOTOGRAPHING AND RECORDING COURT PROCEEDINGS AND COURTHOUSE SPACES

(a) Photographing, Recording, and Transmitting Court Proceedings. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, no Court proceeding whether conducted in court, by telephone, or by video conference, may be photographed, video recorded, audio recorded, broadcast, televised, or otherwise transmitted except as follows:

- (1) Judges presiding over ceremonial proceedings may authorize the use of cameras and video recorders during the proceedings.

(2) Official Court reporters and official electronic recorders employed by the Clerk's Office will record Court proceedings, provided, however, that no Court reporter or electronic recorder may use or permit to be used any official recording of a Court proceeding in connection with any radio or television broadcast.

(b) Photographing, Video Recording, and Televising Courthouse Spaces.

(1) Courtrooms and Other Public Spaces. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, no courtroom or other public space in the courthouse may be photographed, video recorded, or televised except as follows:

(A) On the day of receptions or other social events, persons attending the event may use cameras in the space where the event is being held; and

(B) Employees of the General Services Administration (GSA) and GSA architects and contractors may use cameras in the courtrooms and other public spaces when Court is not in session.

(2) Office Spaces. Cameras may not be used in any office within the courthouse except with the approval of the person in charge of the office.

(c) Penalties. Any camera, recording device, or other equipment used in violation of this Rule may be impounded. Any violation of this Rule may be treated as a contempt of Court and any violator who is a member of the District Court Bar may be subjected to the disciplinary action of the District Court and/or this Court.

If a party fails to include the required statement in their initial filing or by some other deadline as set by the Court, such party is deemed to have consented to entry of final orders or judgments by the bankruptcy judge.

RULE 7012-2 EXTENSION OF TIME TO PLEAD OR FILE MOTION

The deadline to plead or respond to a pleading (as the term pleading is defined by Federal Bankruptcy Rule 7007) in an adversary proceeding may be extended for a period of up to thirty (30) days by stipulation of the parties docketed with the Court or, for a longer period of time, by order of the Court. Any deadline extended pursuant to this Rule does not affect any other deadlines set forth in any scheduling order entered by the Court.

RULE 7012-3 MOTION TO DISMISS AN ADVERSARY PROCEEDING AGAINST A PARTY NOT REPRESENTED BY AN ATTORNEY

Any motion seeking dismissal of an adversary proceeding in which the non-moving party is not represented by an attorney must attach as a cover sheet to such motion a separate notice in substantially the following form:

NOTICE

Your rights may be affected. You should read these papers carefully and may wish to discuss them with an attorney.

A motion to dismiss is a request that one or more claims in a case be decided without holding a trial. A motion to dismiss is governed by Rule 12 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Your complaint, or the portions of your complaint that the motion seeks to dismiss, may be dismissed if the Court finds that the complaint does not contain sufficient factual allegations to grant the relief you have requested.

If you want to oppose the motion to dismiss, you must file with the Court and serve on the other party a written response opposing the motion to dismiss and stating the reasons for your opposition. Your opposition must be filed and served within fourteen (14) days after the service date of the motion, plus three (3) additional days if the motion was served on you by mail, unless otherwise ordered by the Court. If you file a written response, the Court may hold a hearing at a location and time set forth in a notice from the Clerk of Court.

If you fail to file a timely written response to the motion, the Court may grant the motion, in whole or in part, without holding a hearing. This will result in the termination of the proceeding, or some part of the proceeding, in favor of the moving party.

RULE 7015-1 AMENDED COMPLAINT

Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the party filing an amended complaint must file and serve: (a) a clean copy of the amended complaint; and (b) a copy of the amended complaint in which stricken material has been lined through or enclosed in brackets and new material has been underlined or set forth in bold face type.

RULE 7016-1 PRETRIAL PROCEDURES

(a) General. The Court may, in any adversary proceeding, direct the attorney for a party or a party not represented by an attorney to appear before it for a preliminary scheduling or pretrial conference pursuant to Federal Bankruptcy Rule 7016.

(b) Pretrial Statement. Where required by Court order, each party must file a pretrial memorandum, with copies sent to all other attorneys of record or parties not represented by an attorney. Each party must state the following in its pretrial memorandum:

(1) a brief statement of facts that the party proposes to prove in support of a claim or defense, together with a statement of legal theories and citations of authorities;

(2) any required pleading amendments;

(3) any pleaded, but abandoned, issue;

(4) stipulations of fact;

(5) the details of the damage claimed or any other relief sought;

(6) a list of the documents and records to be offered in evidence by the party at the trial other than those expected to be used solely for impeachment, identifying which documents the party expects to introduce in evidence by stipulation and/or without the authentication required by the Federal Rules of Evidence;

(7) a list of the names and specialties of experts that the party proposes to call as witnesses; and

(8) a statement of any matter that must be resolved before trial.

(c) Required Pre-Filing of Exhibits. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, each party must pre-file all exhibits which that party intends to introduce into evidence during any adversary proceeding, except for exhibits to be offered solely for rebuttal or impeachment.

RULE 7026-1 DISCOVERY - GENERAL

(a) Discovery Request Limits. A party may not serve on any other party in an adversary proceeding more than thirty (30) interrogatories, thirty (30) requests for production, and thirty (30) requests for admission, including all parts and sub-parts.

(b) Timely Written Discovery Requests Required. All discovery requests must be made at a sufficiently early date to assure that the time for response expires and discovery disputes are resolved before any discovery deadlines set by the Court. The party serving discovery requests must promptly provide the requests in electronic form that may be edited when requested by the opposing party.

(c) Discovery to Proceed Despite Existence of Disputes. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, a discovery dispute as to one matter does not justify delay in taking or responding to any other discovery.

(d) Discovery Stayed Pending Resolution of Federal Bankruptcy Rule 7012(b) Motion. The filing of a motion pursuant to Federal Bankruptcy Rule 7012(b) stays discovery unless discovery relates to matters outside the scope of the motion.

(e) Format of Responses. Responses to discovery must restate each request followed by the response or a brief statement of the grounds for objection.

(f) Conference of Attorneys Required. Attorneys must confer in person, telephonically, or by videoconference concerning a discovery dispute and make good faith attempts to resolve their differences. The Court will not resolve a discovery dispute unless the moving party has filed a certificate stating:

- (1) the date, time, and place of the discovery conference, the names of all persons participating, and any unresolved issues remaining; or

(2) the moving party's attempts to hold such a conference without success.

(g) Deposition of an Expert. The party taking the deposition of an expert must pay a reasonable fee for the time spent by the expert in deposition and traveling to and from the deposition. The party designating the expert will pay any fee charged by the expert for time spent in preparing for the deposition.

(h) Production Expenses. A party in interest requesting copies of documents that were produced for inspection must pay the actual, reasonable costs of copying, scanning, and/or delivering the documents.

(i) Discovery Guidelines. The Discovery Guidelines adopted by the Court and set forth in Appendix C govern the conduct of discovery.

RULE 7026-2 FILING OF DISCOVERY MATERIAL

In adversary proceedings, a party may not file with the Court either written discovery requests, responses to discovery, or deposition transcripts (other than as exhibits to motions) unless otherwise ordered by the Court. A party propounding written discovery or taking a deposition or providing a discovery response must file a notice stating: (a) the type of discovery or response served; (b) the date and type of service; and (c) each person served. Parties must retain the original copies of the discovery materials and make them available for inspection by any other party.

RULE 7054-1 ALLOWANCE OF COSTS

No costs may be allowed in adversary proceedings in excess of filing fees unless the entitled party files a bill of costs within twenty-one (21) days after the entry of the judgment or order.

RULE 7054-2 ATTORNEYS' FEES

Unless a longer period is fixed by statute or by the Court, motions by a prevailing party for an award of attorney's fees must be filed within twenty-one (21) days after the entry of judgment or order.

RULE 7055-1 DEFAULT - FAILURE TO PROSECUTE

If, upon the expiration of ninety days (90) after the filing of the last pleading, it appears to the Clerk that no significant activity has since occurred on the docket in an adversary proceeding in which there is no scheduled hearing or trial and there are no pending deadlines for discovery or dispositive motions, the Clerk may send written notice to all parties to the adversary proceeding that the proceeding or matter will be denied or dismissed without prejudice unless, within thirty (30) days after the date of the notice, the plaintiff or movant presents good and sufficient cause in writing why the dismissal or denial should not be ordered. If there is no adequate response to the Clerk's notice by the deadline set forth therein, the Court may enter an order of dismissal or denial.

RULE 7055-2 REQUEST OR MOTION FOR DEFAULT JUDGMENT AGAINST A PARTY NOT REPRESENTED BY AN ATTORNEY

Any request or motion seeking a default judgment in an adversary proceeding pursuant to Federal Bankruptcy Rule 7055(b) in which the non-moving party is not represented by an attorney must include as a cover sheet a separate notice to the non-moving party in substantially the following form:

NOTICE

Your rights may be affected. You should read these papers carefully and may wish to discuss them with an attorney.

A motion for default judgment is a request for judgment on one or more of the claims contained in the complaint filed in this case. A motion for default judgment is governed by Rule 55 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Because you have failed to file an answer or other pleading in this case, the Court may enter judgment against you without trial.

If you want to oppose the motion for default judgment, you must file with the Court and serve on the other party a written response opposing the motion and stating the reasons for your opposition. Your opposition must be filed and served within fourteen (14) days after the service date of the motion, plus three (3) additional days if the motion was served on you by mail, unless otherwise ordered by the Court. If you file a written response, the Court may hold a hearing at a location and time set forth in a notice from the Clerk of Court.

If you fail to file a timely written response to the motion, the Court may grant the motion, in whole or in part, with or without holding a hearing. This will result in the termination of the proceeding, or some part of the proceeding, in favor of the moving party, and the entry of a judgment against you.

[Rule 7056-1 is on next page]

RULE 7056-1 MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT AGAINST A PARTY NOT REPRESENTED BY AN ATTORNEY

A motion seeking summary judgment in which the non-moving party is not represented by an attorney must attach to such motion as a cover sheet a separate notice in substantially the following form:

NOTICE

Your rights may be affected. You should read these papers carefully and may wish to discuss them with an attorney.

A motion for summary judgment is a request that one or more issues in a case be decided without holding a trial. A motion for summary judgment is governed by Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Summary judgment may be granted if the Court determines that (a) the material facts are not genuinely disputed and (b) based on those facts, the party asking for summary judgment is entitled to judgment as a matter of law.

If you want to oppose the motion for summary judgment, you must file with the Court and serve on the other party a written response opposing the motion and stating the reasons for your opposition. Your opposition must be filed and served within fourteen (14) days after the service date of the motion, plus three (3) additional days if the motion was served on you by mail, unless otherwise ordered by the Court. If you file a written response, the Court may hold a hearing at a location and time set forth in a notice from the Clerk of Court.

If you disagree with any of the facts stated by the other party, you must include with your response sworn statements from yourself or other knowledgeable witnesses supporting your version of the facts. A sworn statement may take the form either of an affidavit or a declaration signed under penalty of perjury. Any documents you want the Court to consider should be identified in, and attached to, the sworn statements. If you are unable to obtain sworn statements supporting your position, you must file a sworn statement stating why you are unable to obtain such statements at this time.

If you fail to file a timely written response to the motion, the Court may grant the motion, in whole or in part, with or without holding a hearing. This may result in the termination of the matter, or some part of the proceeding, in favor of the moving party, and the entry of a judgment against you.

RULE 9006-1 TIME FOR SERVICE AND FILING OF MOTIONS AND RESPONSIVE PAPERS

(a) In General. Except as otherwise ordered by the Court or required by the Federal Bankruptcy Rules or Local Bankruptcy Rules, all motions must be served at least twenty-one (21) days before the hearing date. The movant may establish any response deadline that is no earlier than fourteen (14) days after the date of service and no later than seven (7) days before the hearing date. Any response deadline may be extended by agreement of the parties.

Unless otherwise provided in the Bankruptcy Code or in the Federal Bankruptcy Rules, if a motion to extend the time to take any action is filed before the expiration of the period prescribed by the Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Bankruptcy Rules, or Court order, the time is automatically extended until the Court acts on the motion, without the necessity for the entry of a bridge order.

RULE 9009-1 LOCAL BANKRUPTCY FORMS

The Local Bankruptcy Forms prescribed in these Rules are attached in Appendix A. They must be observed and used with alterations as may be appropriate.

RULE 9010-1 SELF-REPRESENTED PARTIES (PARTIES NOT REPRESENTED BY AN ATTORNEY)

(a) Who May Appear Self-Represented. Only individuals may represent themselves except for parties filing motions seeking to obtain funds deposited in the registry of the Court.

(b) Responsibilities of Parties Not Represented by an Attorney. Individuals not represented by an attorney are responsible for performing all duties imposed on attorneys by the Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Bankruptcy Rules, these Rules, and applicable federal or state law.

RULE 9010-2 CURRENT INFORMATION

(a) Duty to Keep Current Information on File. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, debtors, attorneys, and parties not represented by an attorney must ensure that their current mailing address, telephone number, and email address (if any), are on file in every case in which such person appears. This obligation continues until the case is closed.

(b) Excusable Neglect. Should any person fail to maintain a current address with the Clerk and as a result, either for lack of response or lack of an appearance, the Court enters an order dismissing any affirmative claim for relief or enters a judgment by default or otherwise against such person or such person's client, the failure to maintain a current address will not be considered excusable neglect.

RULE 9010-3 ATTORNEYS - WHO MAY APPEAR AS AN ATTORNEY FOR A PARTY

(a) In General. Except as otherwise provided in this Rule and 28 U.S.C. § 515 or when an attorney is employed as a federal government attorney and is appearing for purposes related to his or her employment, only members of the Bar of the District Court may appear as an attorney in a bankruptcy case or adversary proceeding.

(b) Admission Pro Hac Vice.

(1) In accordance with, and subject to the limitations of, the Local Rules of the District Court, the Court may permit an attorney who is an active member in good standing of the Bar of any other United States Court or of the highest court of any state to appear and participate as an attorney in a particular bankruptcy case. Such permission will not constitute formal admission to the Bar of the District Court. An attorney admitted pro hac vice is subject to the disciplinary jurisdiction of the District Court and of this Court.

(2) A party represented by an attorney who has been admitted pro hac vice must also be represented by an attorney who is a member of the Bar of the District Court. Such member of the Bar of the District Court must be present in the courtroom for all proceedings before the Court, unless excused by the Court.

(3) The application for admission pro hac vice must comply with Local District Court Rule 101.1.b and conform to Local Bankruptcy Form F.

(c) Certain Actions Not Requiring Admission to the Bar of the District Court. (d) Appearance for Obtaining Deposition Subpoenas. It is not necessary for an attorney to be admitted to the Bar of the District Court to obtain a subpoena for depositions to be taken in this district for cases pending in other districts. However, an attorney seeking such a subpoena is subject to the disciplinary jurisdiction of the District Court and of this Court.

RULE 9010-4 WITHDRAWAL OF APPEARANCE OF AN ATTORNEY

(a) When Clients are Individuals.

(1) An attorney may withdraw an appearance entered on behalf of an individual if another attorney has entered an appearance for and appears as attorney of record for that individual.

(2) Except as provided in subparagraph (1), the appearance of an attorney may be withdrawn only with leave of the Court. An attorney moving to withdraw must certify:

(A) the name and last known address of the client; and

(B) that a written notice has been mailed to or otherwise served upon the client at least seven (7) days previously advising the client of the attorney's proposed withdrawal and notifying the client either to have a new attorney enter an appearance or to advise the Clerk that the client will be proceeding without an attorney.

(b) When Clients Are Other Than Individuals. If the client is other than an individual, including a corporation, partnership, unincorporated association, and government entity, appearance of an attorney may be withdrawn only with leave of Court and if:

(1) the appearance of another attorney has been entered; or

(2) the withdrawing attorney certifies:

(A) the name and last known address of both the client and resident agent or other responsible person or persons for that client; and

(B) that a written notice has been mailed to or otherwise served upon the client at least seven (7) days previously advising the client of the attorney's proposed withdrawal and notifying the client that it must have a new attorney enter an appearance or be subject to dismissal of its case, dismissal of its claims and/or judgment by default on claims against it. If a new attorney has not entered an appearance within twenty-one (21) days after the filing of the motion to withdraw, the Court may dismiss an affirmative claim for relief by, or enter a default against, the party not represented by an attorney.

RULE 9010-5 ATTORNEY FOR DEBTORS – DUTIES

(a) In General. An attorney who files a petition in bankruptcy on behalf of a debtor, or who subsequently enters an appearance on behalf of a debtor other than as special counsel approved under 11 U.S.C. § 327(e), will be the attorney of record in all matters arising during the administration of the case, such as adversary proceedings and motions for relief from stay, except as set forth below.

(b) Individual Cases. In an individual case, representation will continue through discharge and continue as to any matter pending at the time of the discharge. However, an attorney representing an individual debtor may exclude adversary proceedings and United States Trustee audits provided such exclusions are (1) contained in a written engagement agreement signed by the debtor, and (2) described in the attorney’s disclosure of compensation filed under Federal Bankruptcy Rule 2016(b).

(c) Limited Appearance. If a debtor is represented by an attorney generally in a Chapter 7 or Chapter 13 case, another attorney may enter an appearance limited to specific matters in the case, such as a motion for relief, another contested matter, an adversary proceeding, or an appeal, without entering a general appearance on behalf of the debtor. Such attorney must file a Federal Bankruptcy Rule 2016(b) statement disclosing the scope of the representation and the fees charged and paid (or to be paid) for such representation and such representation must be limited solely to the matters described in the Federal Bankruptcy Rule 2016(b) statement.

RULE 9010-6 CHAPTER 13 DEBTOR’S ATTORNEY

The attorney for the debtor in a Chapter 13 case must abide by all requirements set forth in the Chapter 13 Debtor’s Attorney’s Responsibilities and Fees in Appendix F.

RULE 9011-1 SIGNATURES, FEDERAL BAR NUMBER

(a) Parties Represented by Counsel. Subject to LBR 9011-4, when a party is represented by counsel, the Clerk will accept for filing only documents signed by a member of the Bar of the United States District Court for Maryland whose appearance is entered on behalf of that party. The attorney must include his or her federal bar number as listed on the Attorney Admission List.

(b) Parties Appearing Without Counsel. When a party is appearing without counsel, the Clerk will accept for filing only documents signed by that party. Attorneys who have prepared any documents that are submitted for filing by a self-represented litigant must be members of the Bar of this Court and must sign the document, state their name, address, telephone number, and federal bar number as listed on the Attorney Admission List. Upon inquiry, all parties appearing without counsel must disclose the identity of any individual who has prepared, or assisted in preparing, any documents filed in this Court. Any attorney who prepares any document for filing in this Court by a person who is known by the attorney, or who is reasonably expected by the attorney, to be appearing without counsel shall be deemed thereby to have conferred disciplinary jurisdiction upon the Court for any alleged misconduct of that attorney.

(c) Required Information. All individuals signing pleadings or papers filed in a case, matter, or proceeding in the Court (whether an attorney or self-represented litigant) must include the signer's printed name, mailing and business address (if applicable), telephone number, and any email address.

RULE 9011-2 SIGNING OF ELECTRONICALLY TRANSMITTED PLEADINGS; REPRESENTATIONS TO THE COURT

(a) Responsibility for Use of Login and Password. An attorney or other person whose individual PACER account is linked to the Court’s CM/ECF system, as described in the Court’s Electronic Filing Procedures (Appendix H), is responsible for all documents filed using that PACER login and password.

(b) Signature and Certification. The transmission of a petition, pleading, motion, or other paper by electronic means constitutes both a signature by the attorney or other person responsible for transmitting it that is required by Federal Bankruptcy Rule 9011(a) and a certification within the meaning of Federal Bankruptcy Rule 9011(b). Such transmission also constitutes a representation by the attorney or other person responsible for an electronic transmission to the Court that he or she is in possession of the original petition, pleading, motion, or other paper, with all original signatures thereon other than those papers signed solely by the filing user and co-counsel.

(c) Verification of Signatures.

(1) The requirement that all petitions, lists, schedules, statements, and amendments thereto must be “verified” in Federal Bankruptcy Rule 1008 is met, and the documents may be electronically filed, if the debtor’s attorney either:

(A) obtains the original, physical signature prior to filing; or

(B) files the document electronically without possession of the original signature, provided that such electronic filing constitutes a certification by the attorney that the debtor has signed it and that, at the time of filing, the filing attorney is in possession of an image format or other facsimile of the document, including the signature page received from the debtor either electronically (including by email or text) or by facsimile machine. Any document filed electronically without the original signature in the filing attorney's possession shall be filed by placing “/s/ Debtor's Name” where the signature occurs, thereby constituting the attorney's certification that before filing the attorney transmitted the entire document to the debtor for review and signature, communicated with the debtor regarding the substance and purpose of the document, received the signature page back from the debtor electronically, and received express authorization to file the document.

(2) The requirements in the Local Bankruptcy Rules of obtaining, maintaining, or producing an “original signature,” and the requirement of a “signature” in 28 U.S.C. §1746, are met if the attorney complies with this Local Bankruptcy Rule.

(3) A petition or Chapter 13 plan verified and filed in accordance with paragraph (1)(A) or (B) of this Local Bankruptcy Rule shall be deemed to be signed by the debtor for purpose of Local Bankruptcy Rules 1002-1(a)(1) and 3015-1(c).

RULE 9011-3 MAINTENANCE AND PRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL DOCUMENTS

(a) Maintenance. The attorney or other person responsible for an electronic transmission to the Court must maintain the petition, pleading, motion, or other paper bearing original signatures, other than that of the electronic filer, for three (3) years after the bankruptcy case is closed.

(b) Production. Upon reasonable request by the Court or a party in interest made no later than three (3) years after the bankruptcy case is closed, the attorney or other person responsible for an electronic filing must produce for inspection and copying the petition, pleading, motion, or other paper filed by electronic means, with all original signatures thereon.

(c) Original Signatures. An original wet ink signature is required on any petition, schedule, statement, Chapter 13 plan, or any other document filed under oath or penalty of perjury.

If a document does not require an original wet ink signature, an original signature:

(1) of an attorney includes a signature obtained or sent by facsimile, scanned document, email authorization, or other electronic means, authorizing the placement of the electronic signature of the authorizing person on the document to be filed; or

(2) of a client includes a signature transmitted by facsimile or scanned document authorizing the placement of the electronic signature of the authorized person on the document to be filed.

RULE 9011-4 FILING WHEN REPRESENTED BY COUNSEL

Except for issues concerning the relationship between attorney and client, or unless otherwise directed by the presiding judge, any document presented for filing by a party represented by counsel, unless filed by counsel, shall be docketed by the Clerk with an electronic notice that states no action will be taken on the filing unless requested by counsel.

RULE 9011-5 RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

This Court applies the Rules of Professional Conduct as they have been adopted by the Supreme Court of Maryland. Attorneys practicing before the Court should be familiar with those Rules and shall comply in all respects.

RULE 9013-1 MOTIONS PRACTICE

(a) In General. All motions (or memoranda in support of motions) and responsive pleadings must (1) include a caption with the Court's name, the case name, the case number, the chapter of the case, and a descriptive title; (2) if the motion is filed in an adversary proceeding, include the name of the plaintiff and the defendant; (3) include the relevant facts, legal argument, and reference to adequate evidence to support the party's position under applicable substantive law; and (4) comply with the Court's Electronic Case Filing Procedures (Appendix H).

(b) Resolution of Motions on the Papers. Except as otherwise provided in the Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Bankruptcy Rules, these Rules or by the Court, the Court may decide a motion on the papers filed.

(c) Consideration of Motion Prior to Response Deadline. Notwithstanding the establishment of a response deadline in the Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Bankruptcy Rules, or the Local Bankruptcy Rules, in its discretion, the Court may grant or deny a motion prior to the response deadline if the Court determines responses would not aid in the decisional process and the circumstances of the case warrant expedient consideration of the motion.

(d) Consideration of Unopposed Motion. If no party in interest files a timely response to a motion, the Court may rule on the motion without further notice or a hearing.

RULE 9013-2 BRIEFS AND MEMORANDA OF LAW

A party must file with each motion a brief memorandum of fact and law entitling the movant to the relief claimed or a statement that no memorandum will be filed and that the movant will rely solely upon the motion.

RULE 9013-3 ORDERS - PROPOSED

(a) In General. All requests for relief, other than those described in paragraph (b) below must be accompanied by a proposed order. The proposed order must contain a specific title describing the nature and effect of the order, and the body of the order must specify the relief granted. The names and addresses of all attorneys, creditors, and other parties in interest who have a potential interest in, or whose rights might be affected by, the matter must be set forth in the lower left-hand corner of the final page of the proposed order or carried over to another page, provided, however, that only the name and “via CM/ECF” are required for any attorney who is receiving notices through CM/ECF in that case. The caption of the order must be in the same form as the caption of the motion.

(b) Exceptions. Paragraph (a) does not apply to motions for relief from the automatic stay, motions to dismiss or convert, Chapter 13 plans, motions to modify Chapter 13 plans, and pleadings initiating adversary proceedings under Federal Bankruptcy Rule 7001.

(c) Motions for Relief from Stay. Proposed orders for motions for relief from the automatic stay must be submitted to the Court upon the earlier of:

- (1) A consent being reached by all parties; or
- (2) After the conclusion of the hearing on the motion.

(d) Form Orders. If the Court maintains a form order for the particular type of relief requested by a party, that party must submit a proposed order substantially similar to the Court’s form order. All forms are available on the Court’s website.

RULE 9013-4 CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

(a) In General. Unless otherwise provided by the Federal Bankruptcy Rules or required by the Court, a certificate of service is required for every motion, objection, notice, or other pleading or paper filed with the Court. The certificate must be filed and served contemporaneously with the filing and service of the referenced pleading or paper.

(b) Placement. The certificate must be placed at the end of the item served and endorsed by an attorney of record, the attorney's authorized agent, or by a party if not represented by an attorney.

(c) Content. The certificate must state the date of service.

(1) For each recipient who is served through CM/ECF, the certificate must also identify the name of the person served with the statement that service is via CM/ECF. The attorney or person not represented by an attorney filing the pleading or document is responsible to ensure that all persons listed as being served via CM/ECF are registered to receive CM/ECF notice in that case or must effectuate service by other appropriate means.

(2) For all other recipients, the certificate must separately identify the name, title (if applicable), and address of each person served and state the method of service.

(d) Noticing Agents. Noticing agents authorized by the Court must make service in accordance with this Rule, except as otherwise provided in the order authorizing the employment of the noticing agent.

RULE 9013-5 RESPONSIBILITY FOR PROPER SERVICE

(a) In General. It is the obligation of an attorney or party that files a pleading to determine every party with a cognizable interest in the pleading that must receive a copy and the current address of each such party. A certificate of service signed by an attorney, by an attorney's authorized agent, or by a party constitutes a representation to the Court that all parties entitled to service have been included and have been served properly. Violation of this paragraph may be subject to an appropriate sanction.

(b) Deficiencies. It is the obligation of an attorney or a party filing a motion to review any notice of a hearing on that motion prepared by the Clerk and to communicate forthwith to the Clerk any deficiency in the notice and any omission in the list of parties receiving notice.

RULE 9013-6 MOTION TO SHORTEN TIME AND/OR FOR EXPEDITED HEARING

(a) Motion. If the movant requests that the time to object to any motion be shortened, or that a more expedited hearing is needed, the movant must file contemporaneously a separate motion requesting that the Court shorten the time within which responses may be filed and/or requesting that the Court set an expedited hearing.

(b) Notice. If a motion is filed to shorten the time to object to any motion or to expedite the hearing thereon, the movant must include the following language in the notice:

THE MOVANT HAS ALSO FILED A MOTION TO SHORTEN THE TIME FOR RESPONSE AND/OR FOR AN EXPEDITED HEARING. IF THAT MOTION TO SHORTEN OR EXPEDITE IS GRANTED, THE TIME TO OBJECT AND/OR DATE FOR HEARING WILL BE CHANGED AS PROVIDED IN SUCH ORDER.

(c) Order Shortening Time and/or Scheduling Expedited Hearing. If the Court enters an order shortening the time for responses to a motion and/or scheduling an expedited hearing on a motion, then the movant must serve a copy of the order on all parties in interest served with the motion and file a certificate of service as soon as practicable.

RULE 9013-7 POSTPONEMENT/CONTINUANCE OF MATTERS OR PROCEEDINGS

(a) Court Order or Consent Required. Subject to the requirements of Local Bankruptcy Rule 4001-1(b)(3), (1) a Court order or (2) consent of the parties filed on the docket or communicated in writing to the assigned judge’s courtroom deputy is required for any postponement of a hearing, pretrial conference, or trial.

(b) Notice to Client and Other Parties. A motion to postpone must be served by the fastest means to avoid inconvenience to other parties.

(c) Conflicting Engagement. A motion for a postponement of a hearing or trial on the grounds of a prior conflicting engagement must be filed at least seven (7) days before the hearing date. Written evidence of the conflicting engagement must be attached to the motion.

(d) Meeting of Creditors. A request for postponement of a meeting of creditors held under 11 U.S.C. § 341 must be handled as follows:

(1) Requests for postponement must be made:

(A) in Chapter 12 and 13 cases, to the standing trustee assigned to the case;

(B) in Chapter 7 cases, to the interim trustee; and

(C) in Chapter 11 cases, to the Assistant United States Trustee assigned to the division of Court where the case is pending.

(2) Upon a written request of the debtor’s attorney or the debtor, and at the discretion of the respective trustee, a meeting of creditors pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 341(a) may be rescheduled to the trustee's next available panel date, or as otherwise agreed. The request must state the basis for the request and must state whether any prior continuance request has been made.

(3) Unless otherwise agreed to by the trustee and the debtor's attorney or the debtor:

(A) To request a continuance in a Chapter 7 or 13 case, the documents required by 11 U.S.C. § 521 (pay advices or Local Bankruptcy Form Q and tax returns) must be delivered prior to or with the request to the trustee.

(B) In Chapter 7 cases of individual debtors, the debtor's attorney (or the debtor, if not represented by an attorney) must provide a certification to the trustee that a consent motion has been or will be filed with the Court to extend the deadlines to file both an objection to discharge under 11 U.S.C. § 727 and a motion to dismiss under 11 U.S.C. § 707(b)(3) until a date sixty (60) days after the rescheduled meeting of creditors, and to extend the deadline for the United States Trustee to file a Statement of Presumed Abuse under 11 U.S.C. § 704(b)(1)(A) until ten (10) days after the rescheduled meeting of creditors.

(C) The debtor's attorney (or the debtor, if not represented by an attorney) must file and serve on all parties on the matrix by first-class mail or CM/ECF a notice of the new meeting date and time, along with the consent motion, at least seven (7) days in advance of the rescheduled meeting, and must certify to the Court (with a copy to the trustee and the United States Trustee) that said notice has been given.

RULE 9014-1 CONTESTED MATTERS

Whenever there is an actual dispute before the Court, other than an adversary proceeding, the litigation to resolve that dispute is a contested matter.

RULE 9014-2 APPLICATION OF PRETRIAL, DISCOVERY, AND DEFAULT RULES TO CONTESTED MATTERS

Local Bankruptcy Rules 7016-1, 7026-1, 7026-2, and 7055-1 apply to contested matters. However, the initial disclosures required by Federal Bankruptcy Rule 7026(a) do not apply to contested matters unless the Court directs otherwise.

RULE 9015-1 TIME FOR FILING CONSENT TO HAVE JURY TRIAL CONDUCTED BY BANKRUPTCY JUDGE

A statement of consent to have a jury trial conducted by a bankruptcy judge under 28 U.S.C. § 157(e) must be filed before the conclusion of the initial pretrial conference.

RULE 9016-1 ISSUANCE OF SUBPOENAS TO SELF-REPRESENTED LITIGANTS

The Clerk must not issue any subpoena under Federal Bankruptcy Rule 9016 at the request of a self-represented litigant unless the litigant first obtains an order from the Court authorizing the issuance of the subpoena. Before entering any such order, the Court may require the self-represented litigant to state the reasons why the subpoena should be issued. The Court may deny issuance of the subpoena if it imposes an undue burden or expense on the person subject to the subpoena or upon the United States Marshal Service or other Court officer who would be required to serve it under 28 U.S.C. § 1915 or if issuance of the requested subpoena is otherwise inconsistent with the requirements of the Federal Bankruptcy Rules.

RULE 9019-1 SETTLEMENTS AND AGREED ORDERS

(a) Order. Subject to the requirements of Federal Bankruptcy Rules 2002(a)(3), 4001(d), and 9019, when the Court is advised by the moving party that an adversary proceeding or contested matter has been settled, the Court may enter an order dismissing the adversary proceeding or contested matter and providing for the payment of costs. Such an order of dismissal will be without prejudice to the right of a party to move for good cause to reopen the proceeding or matter within a reasonable time after settlement should have occurred if the settlement is not consummated. Alternatively, the Court, upon notification by the attorneys that a proceeding or matter has been settled, may require the attorneys to submit, within fourteen (14) days, a proposed order providing for the settlement, in default of which the Court may enter judgment or other appropriate order.

(b) Motion Required. Notwithstanding Federal Bankruptcy Rule 7041, if parties to an adversary proceeding resolve the issues presented therein, one or more of the parties must file a motion for Court approval under Federal Bankruptcy Rule 9019 if the settlement involves a transfer of cash or other property to or from the bankruptcy estate. If a motion is not required under Federal Bankruptcy Rule 9019, then the parties must state in their notice of voluntary dismissal that the settlement does not involve a transfer of cash or other property to or from the bankruptcy estate.

(c) Complete Disposition. An order entered pursuant to this Rule has the effect of noting the settlement of the entire adversary proceeding or contested matter, including all claims, counterclaims, third-party claims, and crossclaims, unless otherwise stated.

(d) Filing Procedures. In adversary proceedings, motions for approval of settlements must be filed in the adversary case and served on all parties in the adversary case. Notice of the motion for approval of a settlement must be filed in the main case and served on all parties entitled to receive notice.

RULE 9019-2 ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

A Bankruptcy Dispute Resolution Program (“BDRP”) is maintained in accordance with Local Rule 607 of the United States District Court for the District of Maryland, and available to facilitate the resolution of disputes, as set forth in Appendix G to these Rules.

RULE 9027-1 CONSENT TO JUDGMENT IN REMOVAL ACTIONS

Federal Bankruptcy Rule 7012(b) and Local Bankruptcy Rule 7012-1 apply in the case of removal.

RULE 9027-2 REMOVAL

(a) Filing. A party seeking to remove a claim or cause of action from a state or federal court to the Court must file a notice of removal.

(b) Service. A notice of removal must be served pursuant to Federal Bankruptcy Rule 7004 and Local Bankruptcy Rule 7004-1.

(c) Procedure After Removal. Not later than fourteen (14) days after the filing of the notice of removal, the party filing the notice must file a copy of the docket sheet from the original court and provide a list of those filings that the party proposes should be included in the docket from the removed proceeding. The Court will instruct the removing party regarding which pleadings on the removing party's list must be filed in the removed proceeding and included in the Court's docket.

RULE 9029-1 LOCAL BANKRUPTCY RULES - GENERAL

The Court may suspend or modify a requirement or provision of any of these Rules in a particular case, adversary proceeding, or contested matter on the Court's own initiative or on motion of a party.

RULE 9033-1 PROPOSED FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

When a party has objected to proposed findings or conclusions pursuant to Federal Bankruptcy Rule 9033(b), for the purpose of preparing the record and identifying the issues for the District Court, the parties will follow the procedures set forth in Federal Bankruptcy Rule 8009 by treating any objection as an appeal. The Court may order the designated extract supplemented.

RULE 9036-1 NOTICE BY ELECTRONIC TRANSMISSION

In addition to service of notice by electronic transmission or by first-class mail, notice may be given by hand-delivery, facsimile transmission, email, or nationally recognized delivery service; provided, however, that in the case of facsimile transmission and email, service is not effective unless the receiving party has consented in writing to that manner of service, in which case service is complete upon transmission, but it is not effective if the serving party learns that it did not reach the person to be served. The Clerk may not accept for filing any email or facsimile transmission.

RULE 9037-1 PRIVACY POLICY AND TRANSCRIPT REDACTION PROCEDURES

(a) Privacy Policy. The Judicial Conference of the United States has adopted a privacy policy to restrict the publication of certain personal data in documents filed with the Court. The policy requires limiting Social Security and financial account numbers to the last four digits, using only initials for the names of minor children and limiting dates of birth to the year. If such information is elicited during testimony in court proceedings, it will become available to the public when the official transcript is filed with the Court unless, and until, it is redacted. If a restricted item is mentioned or introduced in a hearing, parties may ask to have it stricken from the record or partially redacted to conform to the privacy policy or the Court may do so on its own initiative.

(b) Transcript Redaction Procedures. Upon the receipt of a transcript, the Clerk will serve a Notice of Requirement to Review Transcript on all parties to the hearing. A transcript will be available at the Clerk's office for inspection for a period of ninety (90) days after it is prepared and received by the Court. During the ninety (90) day period, a copy of the transcript may be obtained from the transcriber at the rate established by the Judicial Conference, the transcript will be available within the Court for internal use and an attorney who obtains the transcript from the transcriber may obtain remote electronic access to the transcript via the Court's CM/ECF system for purposes of creating hyperlinks to the transcript in court filings and for other purposes. The attorney, or the litigant not represented by an attorney, will have fourteen (14) days from the date of the Notice of Requirement to Review Transcript to file a Notice of Intent to Request Redaction with the Court, stating an intention to review the transcript to determine whether to request redaction of sensitive private information before the transcript is made electronically available to the public. A copy of the Notice of Intent to Request Redaction must be served on the transcriber. A party will have twenty-one (21) days from the date of the Notice of Requirement to Review Transcript to file a Request for Redaction of Transcript with the Court (which will be a private, restricted event) and send a copy to the transcriber, listing the entries by page and line where personal data appears that must be redacted. The deadline for filing the redacted version of the transcript is thirty-one (31) days from the date of the Notice of Requirement to Review Transcript. At the end of the ninety (90) day restriction period, the redacted version will be made available via remote electronic access and at the public terminals in the Clerk's office for viewing and printing. The unredacted version of the transcript will not be available via remote electronic access or at the Clerk's office upon the docketing of the redacted transcript; it must be maintained as a private, restricted event. An attorney who purchases the transcript during the ninety (90) day restricted period will be given remote electronic access to the transcript and any redacted version filed.

RULE 9070-1 EXHIBITS

(a) Pending Appeal. From the conclusion of a hearing or trial to the expiration of the time within which to file a notice of appeal or, in the event that an appeal is taken, until the transmission of the record to the District Court, the Clerk will retain all documentary exhibits except ones of unusual bulk or weight. Documents of unusual bulk or weight and all non-documentary exhibits will remain in the custody of the attorney presenting them, who (1) will permit inspection of them by the attorney for another party for the purpose of preparing the record on appeal; (2) will be responsible for their safekeeping; and (3) if requested, will send them to the appellate court.

(b) Upon Conclusion of Action. On the conclusion of a contested matter or the closing of an adversary proceeding, the Clerk will send notice to all attorneys advising the attorneys to remove, within thirty (30) days, all trial and hearing exhibits and all sealed materials that the attorneys presented at any time during the pendency of the contested matter or adversary proceeding. If a party fails to retrieve exhibits within thirty (30) days, the exhibits will be discarded by the Clerk.

RULE 401. RULES IN BANKRUPTCY COURT PROCEEDINGS

Proceedings in the Bankruptcy Court shall be governed by Local Bankruptcy Rules as adopted from time to time by order of the Court.

RULE 402. REFERRAL OF BANKRUPTCY CASES AND PROCEEDINGS

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(a), all cases under Title 11 of the United States Code and proceedings arising under Title 11 or arising in or related to cases under Title 11 shall be deemed to be referred to the bankruptcy judges of this District.

RULE 403. DEFINITION OF TRANSMITTAL

As used in this chapter, transmittal of a document includes the forwarding of a paper document or copy, or providing access to an electronic document in accordance with the procedures adopted by the Court.

RULE 404. APPEALS TO THE DISTRICT COURT

1. Manner of Appeal

a) Generally

Appeals to the District Court from the Bankruptcy Court shall be taken in the manner prescribed in Part VIII of the Bankruptcy Rules, Rules 8001 et seq.

b) Bankruptcy Court Opinion and Order

Appellant shall provide with the opening brief a copy of the Bankruptcy Court opinion and order from which the appeal is being taken.

2. Dismissal for Non-Compliance with Bankruptcy Rule 8009

Whenever the appellant fails to designate the contents of the record on appeal or to file a statement of the issues to be presented on appeal within the time required by Bankruptcy Rule 8009, the Bankruptcy Clerk shall transmit forthwith to the Clerk of the District Court a partial record consisting of a copy of the order or judgment appealed from, the notice of appeal, a copy of the docket entries and such other documents as the Bankruptcy Clerk deems relevant to the appeal. (The District Court may, thereafter, order the Bankruptcy Clerk to transmit any other relevant documents to the Clerk of the District Court.) When the partial record has been filed in the District Court, the Court may, upon motion of the appellee (which is to be filed in the District Court) or upon its own initiative, dismiss the appeal for non-compliance with Bankruptcy Rule 8009 after giving the appellant an opportunity to explain the non-compliance and upon considering whether the non-compliance had prejudicial effect on the other parties.

3. Dismissal for Non-Compliance with Bankruptcy Rule 8018

Whenever the appellant fails to serve and file a brief within the time required by Bankruptcy Rule 8018, the District Court may, upon motion of the appellee (to be filed in the District Court) or upon its own initiative, dismiss the appeal after giving the appellant an opportunity to explain the non-compliance and upon considering whether the non-compliance had prejudicial effect on the other parties.

4. Procedure Regarding Motion to Stay Pending Appeal

After seeking appropriate relief under Bankruptcy Rule 8007, an appellant seeking a stay pending appeal by the District Court of an order entered by the Bankruptcy Court shall file with the Clerk of the District Court a motion to stay and copies of all documents in the record of the Bankruptcy Court relevant to the appeal. Upon the filing of these documents, the Clerk of the District Court shall immediately open a civil file and the District Court shall give immediate consideration to the motion to stay. If the underlying appeal is ultimately perfected, it will be assigned the same civil action number as was assigned to the motion to stay.

5. Bankruptcy Court Certification Regarding Interlocutory Appeal

Whenever there has been filed in the District Court an application for leave to appeal an interlocutory order of the Bankruptcy Court, the Bankruptcy Court shall, upon request of the District Court, submit to the District Court a written certification stating whether, in its opinion, the interlocutory order involves a controlling question of law as to which there is substantial ground for difference of opinion and whether an immediate appeal of it may materially advance the ultimate termination of the case. The District Court shall, thereafter, determine whether to grant or deny the application for leave to appeal.

RULE 405. RULES OF PROCEDURE FOR WITHDRAWAL OF REFERENCE

1. General Rule

When a case or proceeding has been referred by this Court to the Bankruptcy Court, all documents and pleadings in or related to such case or proceeding shall be filed with the Clerk in the Bankruptcy Court.

2. Withdrawal of Reference of Bankruptcy Case or Proceeding

a) Filing of Motion for Withdrawal of Reference with Bankruptcy Clerk

A motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(d) and Bankruptcy Rule 5011 to withdraw the reference of any bankruptcy case, contested matter or adversary proceeding referred to the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(a) and L.R. 402 shall be filed with the Clerk in the Bankruptcy Court. If the motion requests withdrawal of only a portion of the case, a contested matter, or a portion of an adversary proceeding, the motion shall be accompanied by the filing of a designation of the documents and pleadings filed in the case or proceeding to which the motion relates.

b) Withdrawal of Reference of Bankruptcy Cases

A motion to withdraw the reference of a case to the Bankruptcy Court must be timely filed, and in any event, before the case is closed.

c) Withdrawal of Reference of Adversary Proceeding or Contested Matter

A motion to withdraw an adversary proceeding or a contested matter in a case which has been referred to the Bankruptcy Court must be filed by the earlier of fourteen (14) days before the date scheduled for the first hearing on the merits and,

i) in the case of an adversary proceeding, within twenty-one (21) days after the last pleading is permitted to be filed pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7012; or

ii) in the case of a contested matter, within twenty-one (21) days after the last responsive pleading or memorandum in opposition is permitted to be filed pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-1(b)(3).

3. Filing of Pleadings after Reference Withdrawn

a) If the reference of an entire case has been withdrawn from the Bankruptcy Court to the District Court, all pleadings and documents in or related to such case shall be thereafter filed with the Clerk in the District Court.

b) Where the reference of only a portion of an entire case has been withdrawn, pleadings and documents with respect to the case (including any parts thereof that have been withdrawn or transferred) shall continue to be filed with the Clerk in the Bankruptcy Court. Any pleadings and documents which relate to any parts of the case which have been withdrawn or transferred to the District Court shall also be filed with the Clerk of the District Court.

c) Upon withdrawal or transfer of any complaint to the District Court, the plaintiff may forward to the defendant a notice and request to waive service of summons or the Clerk shall issue a District Court summons pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(d) unless either of the aforementioned has already occurred pursuant to the Bankruptcy Rules.

d) This subsection (d) governs personal injury tort and wrongful death claims which must be tried in the District Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(5). Except for the procedures contained within this subsection, personal injury tort and wrongful death proceedings shall be filed with the Clerk in the Bankruptcy Court. However, beneath the bankruptcy number, the pleading or other document shall designate the pleading or document as a “SECTION 157(b)(5) MATTER.” When filing a complaint, a completed District Court civil cover sheet (A.O. Form JS-44c) should be submitted beneath the Bankruptcy Court cover sheet required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 7003-1. No summons shall be issued until the proceeding is transferred to the District Court. Upon filing the complaint, the Clerk in the Bankruptcy Court shall immediately transfer the proceeding to the District Court and plaintiff may send to the defendant(s) a notice and request to waive service of summons pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(d) or the Clerk of the District Court shall issue a summons.

4. Motions Concerning Venue in Bankruptcy Cases and Proceedings

All motions concerning venue in cases arising under Title 11 or arising in or related to cases under Title 11 shall be determined by the Bankruptcy Court, except in those cases to be tried in the District Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(5).

RULE 406. JURY TRIAL

1. Demand

In any bankruptcy proceeding any party may demand a trial by jury of any issue triable of right by jury by (1) serving upon the other parties a demand therefor in writing at any time after the commencement of the action and not later than fourteen (14) days after the service of the last pleading directed to such issue, and (2) filing the demand as required by Bankruptcy Rule 9015. Such demand may be indorsed upon a pleading of the party. If the adversary proceeding is one that has been removed from another court, any demand previously made under the rules of that court shall constitute a demand for trial by jury under this Rule.

2. Specification of Issues

In the demand, a party may specify the issues which the party wishes so tried; otherwise the party shall be deemed to have demanded trial by jury for all the issues so triable. If the party has demanded trial by jury for only some of the issues, any other party within fourteen (14) days after service of the demand or such lesser time as the Court may order, may serve a demand for trial by jury of any other or all of the issues of fact in the action.

3. Waiver

The failure of a party to serve and file a demand as required by this Rule constitutes a waiver by the party of trial by jury. A demand for trial by jury made as herein provided may not be withdrawn without the consent of the parties.

4. Consent to Jury Trial before United States Bankruptcy Judge

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(e), with the consent of the parties, a district judge may designate a bankruptcy judge to conduct a jury trial.

RULE 407. REMOVAL

Removals under 28 U.S.C. § 1452 or § 1441 in cases related to bankruptcy cases should be filed with the Bankruptcy Clerk.

DISCOVERY GUIDELINES OF THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF MARYLAND

Guideline 1: Conduct of Discovery

a. The purpose of these Guidelines is to facilitate the just, speedy, and inexpensive conduct of discovery in civil cases before the Court, and these Guidelines will be construed and administered accordingly, with respect to all attorneys, parties, and non-parties involved in discovery of civil cases before the Court. Fed R. Civ. P. 26 requires that discovery be relevant to any party's claim or defense; proportional to what is at issue in a case; and not excessively burdensome or expensive as compared to the likely benefit of obtaining the discovery being sought.

The parties and counsel have an obligation to cooperate in planning and conducting discovery to tailor the discovery to ensure that it meets these objectives. Counsel have a duty to confer early and throughout the case as needed to ensure that discovery is planned and conducted consistent with these requirements and, where necessary, make adjustments and modifications in discovery as needed.

During the course of their consultation, counsel are encouraged to think creatively and to make proposals to one another about alternatives or modifications to the discovery otherwise permitted that would permit discovery to be completed in a more just, speedy, inexpensive way. By way of illustration only, such alternatives could include different or additional deadlines for the filing of motions or the completion of all or part of discovery; accelerated exchanges of disclosures, additional data or descriptions of the parties' claims and defenses; sampling techniques; and substantial limitations on, or even the elimination of, depositions, coupled with alternative methods of exchanging or obtaining factual information or the equivalent of deposition testimony.

b. The parties and their counsel are encouraged to submit to the Court for approval their agreements to expand or limit discovery. If, however, counsel are unable to reach agreement on a discovery plan that substantially modifies the normal course of discovery, and either side believes that the Court's assistance would be helpful in framing or implementing such a plan, then the Court will make itself available with reasonable promptness, in response to a brief, written request for a discovery management conference that identifies the issues for consideration.

c. Counsel are expected to have read the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Local Rules of the Court, these Guidelines, and, with respect to discovery of electronically stored information (“ESI”), the Suggested Protocol for Discovery of ESI, posted on the Court’s website, www.mdd.uscourts.gov. Compliance with these Guidelines will be considered by the Court in resolving discovery disputes, including whether sanctions should be awarded pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 37, or the Court’s inherent powers.

d. Attorneys are expected to behave professionally and with courtesy towards all involved in the discovery process, including but not limited to opposing counsel, parties and non-parties. This includes cooperation and civil conduct in an adversary system. Cooperation and civility include, at a minimum, being open to, and reasonably available for, discussion of legitimate differences in order to achieve the just, speedy, and inexpensive resolution of the action and every proceeding. Cooperation and communication can reduce the costs of discovery, and they are an obligation of counsel.

e. All discovery requests, responses and objections are governed by the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(g) and counsel and parties are expected to be familiar with the requirements of the Rule.

f. Whenever possible, attorneys are expected to communicate with each other in good faith throughout the discovery process to resolve disputes without the need for intervention by the Court, and should do so promptly after becoming aware of the grounds for the dispute. In the event that such good faith efforts are unsuccessful, an unresolved dispute should be brought to the Court’s attention promptly after efforts to resolve it have been unsuccessful. A failure to do so may result in a determination by the Court that the dispute must be rejected as untimely. Counsel may bring the unresolved dispute to the Court’s attention by filing a letter, in lieu of a written motion, that briefly describes the dispute, unless otherwise directed by the Court.

g. Upon being notified by the parties of the unresolved discovery dispute, the Court will promptly schedule a conference call with counsel, or initiate other expedited procedures, to consider and resolve the discovery dispute. If the Court determines that the issue is too complicated to resolve informally, it may set an expedited briefing schedule to ensure that the dispute can be resolved promptly.

h. To the extent that any part of these Guidelines conflicts with any Local Rule of the Court, or an order of the Court in a particular case, then the conflicting rule or order should be considered to be governing.

Guideline 2: Stipulations Setting Discovery Deadlines

Subject to approval by the Court, attorneys are encouraged to enter into written discovery stipulations to supplement the Court's scheduling order. During the scheduling process, the Court will consider requests to impose milestone dates for motions, such as spoliation motions, and motions in limine (including Daubert motions) that do not normally otherwise have automatically-imposed deadlines. The Court encourages parties to submit to the Court for approval joint suggestions made pursuant to the Suggested Protocol for Discovery of ESI.

Guideline 3: Expert Witnesses

a. Unless counsel agree that each party will pay its own experts, the party taking an expert witness's deposition ordinarily pays the expert's fees for the time spent in deposition and related travel. See L.R. 104.11.a. Accordingly, counsel for the party that designated the expert witness should try to assure that the fee charged by the expert to the party taking the deposition is fair and reasonable. In the event a dispute arises as to the reasonableness or other aspects of an expert's fee, counsel should promptly confer and attempt in good faith to resolve the dispute without the involvement of the Court. If counsel are unsuccessful, the expert's deposition should proceed on the date noted, unless the Court orders otherwise, and the dispute respecting payment should be brought to the Court's attention promptly. The factors that may be considered in determining whether a fee is reasonable include, but are not limited to: (1) the expert's area of expertise; (2) the expert's education and training; (3) the fee being charged to the party who designated the expert; and (4) the fees ordinarily charged by the expert for non-litigation services, such as office consultations with patients or clients.

b. Recognizing that a treating physician may be considered both a fact witness and an expert, the Court has chosen to impose a specific limitation on the fee a treating physician may charge to either party. It is implicit in L.R. 104.11.b, which requires counsel to estimate the hours of deposition time required, that the physician may charge a fee for the entire time he or she reserved in accordance with the estimate, even if counsel conclude the deposition early. Further, unless the physician received notice at least two business days in advance of a cancellation, the physician is entitled to be paid for any time reserved that cannot reasonably be filled. Every effort should be made to schedule depositions at a time convenient for the witness, and to use videotaped or other visually recorded de bene esse depositions rather than requiring the physician's presence at trial. Note that this Discovery Guideline does not limit the reasonable fee a treating physician may charge if required to testify in Court.

c. The parties are encouraged not to designate multiple experts on the same or similar topics.

d. Guideline 4.d is applicable to expert witness depositions.

Guideline 4: Scheduling Depositions

a. Attorneys are expected to make a good faith effort to coordinate deposition dates with opposing counsel, parties, and non-party deponents, before noting a deposition.

b. Before agreeing to a deposition date, an attorney is expected to attempt to clear the date with his/her client if the client is a deponent, or wishes to attend the deposition, and with any witnesses the attorney agrees to attempt to produce at the deposition without the need to have the witness served with a subpoena.

c. An agreed-upon deposition date is presumptively binding. An attorney seeking to change an agreed-upon date has a duty to coordinate a new date before changing the agreed date. Noncompliance with Guideline 4.d may rebut the presumption contained herein.

d. If an attorney making a good faith effort to coordinate deposition dates under Guideline 4.a anticipates requesting that the deponent produce ESI at the deposition, that anticipated request should be disclosed to the opposing counsel, parties, and non-party deponents at the time of the Guideline 4.a coordination effort, or as soon thereafter as it becomes anticipated. At a minimum, the discovering/requesting party should describe the scope and form of ESI that will be requested. Counsel are encouraged to review and, if applicable, comply with the Suggested Protocol for Discovery of ESI.

e. Upon reasonable request, and where reasonably practicable, in order to expedite the deposition questioning, a deponent should produce documents including ESI, properly requested in a notice of deposition and accompanying subpoena, if any, a reasonable time prior to the deposition. Noncompliance with a reasonable and timely request for production of such documents prior to a deposition may be considered by the Court in a motion or request made pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(d)(1) to determine whether additional time is needed to fairly examine the deponent or if the deponent, another person, or any other circumstance has impeded or delayed the examination.

Guideline 5: Designation by an Organization of Someone to Testify on Its Behalf

a. Requested Areas of Testimony.

A notice or subpoena to an entity, association or other organization should accurately and concisely identify the designated area(s) of requested testimony, giving due regard to the nature, business, size and complexity of the entity being asked to testify. The notice or subpoena should ask the recipient to provide the name(s) of the designated person(s) and the areas that each person will testify to by a reasonable date before the deposition is scheduled to begin.

b. Designating the Best Person to Testify for the Organization.

An entity, association or other organization responding to a deposition notice or subpoena should make a diligent inquiry to determine what individual(s) is (are) best suited to testify.

c. More Than One Person May Be Necessary.

When it appears that more than one individual should be designated to testify without duplication on the designated area(s) of inquiry, each such individual should be identified, a reasonable period of time before the date of the deposition, as a designated witness along with a description of the area(s) to which he or she will testify.

Guideline 6: Deposition Questioning, Objections and Procedure

a. An attorney should not intentionally ask a witness a question that misstates or mischaracterizes the witness's previous answer.

b. During the taking of a deposition, it is presumptively improper for an attorney to make objections which are not consistent with Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(c)(2). Objections should be stated as simply, concisely and non-argumentatively as possible to avoid coaching or making suggestions to the deponent, and to minimize interruptions in the questioning of the deponent (for example: "objection, leading;" "objection, asked and answered;" "objection, compound question;" "objection, form"). If an attorney desires to make an objection for the record during the taking of a deposition that reasonably could have the effect of coaching or suggesting to the deponent how to answer, then the deponent, at the request of any of the attorneys present, or, at the request of a party if unrepresented by an attorney, should be excused from the deposition during the making of the objection.

c. An attorney should not repeatedly ask the same or substantially identical question of a deponent if the question already has been asked and fully and responsively answered by the deponent. Upon objection by counsel for the deponent, or by the deponent if unrepresented, it is presumptively improper for an attorney to continue to ask the same or substantially identical question of a witness unless the previous answer was evasive or incomplete.

d. It is presumptively improper to instruct a witness not to answer a question during the taking of a deposition unless under the circumstances permitted by Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(c)(2). However, it is also presumptively improper to ask questions clearly beyond the scope of discovery permitted by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1), particularly of a personal nature, and continuing to do so after objection shall be evidence that the deposition is being conducted in bad faith or in such a manner as unreasonably to annoy, embarrass, or oppress the deponent or party, which is prohibited by Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(d)(3).

e. If requested to supply an explanation as to the basis for an objection, the objecting attorney should do so, consistent with Guideline 6(b) above.

f. While the interrogation of the deponent is in progress, neither an attorney nor the deponent should initiate a private conversation except for the purpose of determining whether a privilege should be asserted. To do so otherwise is presumptively improper.

g. During breaks in the taking of a deposition, no one should discuss with the deponent the substance of the prior testimony given by the deponent during the deposition. Counsel for the deponent may discuss with the deponent at such time whether a privilege should be asserted or otherwise engage in discussion not regarding the substance of the witness's prior testimony.

h. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the following persons may, without advance notice, attend a deposition: individual parties; a representative of non-individual parties; and expert witnesses of parties. Except for the persons identified above, counsel should notify other parties not later than seven (7) days before the taking of a deposition if counsel desires to have a non-party present during a deposition. If the parties are unable to agree to the attendance of this person, then the person shall not be entitled to attend the deposition unless the party desiring to have the person attend obtains a court order permitting him/her to do so. Unless ordered by the Court, however, a dispute regarding who may attend a deposition should not be grounds for delaying the deposition. All persons present during the taking of a deposition should be identified on the record before the deposition begins. Other than the deponent, counsel representing a party or unrepresented party, persons attending a deposition may not ask or answer questions during, or otherwise participate in the process of, the deposition.

i. Except for the person recording the deposition in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b), during the taking of a deposition no one may record the testimony without the consent of the deponent and all parties in attendance, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

Guideline 7: Assertions of Privilege at Depositions

a. When a claim of privilege is asserted during a deposition, and information is not provided on the basis of such assertion:

b. In accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5), the person asserting the privilege should identify during the deposition the nature of the privilege (including work product) that is being claimed.

c. After a claim of privilege has been asserted, the person seeking disclosure should have reasonable latitude during the deposition to question the witness to establish other relevant information concerning the assertion of privilege, including: (i) the applicability of the particular privilege being asserted; (ii) any circumstances that, under Fed. R. Evid. 502, may demonstrate that a prior disclosure was or was not permitted without waiver of the privilege; (iii) any circumstances that may constitute an exception to the assertion of the privilege; and (iv) any circumstances which may result in the privilege having been waived.

d. In accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5), the party asserting the privilege, in providing the foregoing information, should not be required to reveal the information that is itself privileged or protected from disclosure.

Guideline 8: Making a Record of Improper Conduct During a Deposition

Upon request of any attorney, party unrepresented by an attorney, or the deponent if unrepresented by an attorney, the person recording the deposition in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b) should enter on the record a description by the requesting person of conduct of any attorney, party, or person attending the deposition which violates these guidelines, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, or the Local Rules of the Court.

Guideline 9: Delay in Responding to Discovery Requests

a. Interrogatories, Requests for Production of Documents, and Requests for Admission of Facts and Genuineness of Documents

The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure designate the time prescribed for responding to Interrogatories, Requests for Production of Documents, and Requests for Admission of Facts and Genuineness of Documents. Nothing contained in these guidelines modifies the time limits prescribed by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Attorneys should make good faith efforts to respond to discovery requests within the time prescribed by those rules.

Absent exigent circumstances, attorneys seeking additional time to respond to discovery requests should contact opposing counsel as soon as practical after receipt of the discovery request, but not later than three (3) days before the response is due. In multiple party cases, the attorney wanting additional time should contact the attorney for the party propounding the discovery.

A request for additional time which does not conflict with a scheduling deadline imposed by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Local Rules of the Court, or a court order should not be unreasonably refused. If a request for additional time is granted, the requesting party should promptly prepare a writing which memorializes the agreement, which shall be served on all parties but need not be submitted to the Court for approval.

Unless otherwise provided by the Local Rules of the Court, no stipulation that modifies a court-imposed deadline shall be deemed effective unless and until the Court approves the stipulation.

b. Depositions

Unless otherwise ordered by the Court or agreed upon by the parties, fourteen (14) days notice should be deemed to be “reasonable notice” within the meaning of Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b)(1), for the noting of depositions.

Guideline 10: Interrogatories, Requests for Production of Documents, Answers to Interrogatories, and Written Responses to Document Requests

a. A party may object to an interrogatory, document request, or part thereof, while simultaneously providing partial or incomplete answers to the request. If a partial or incomplete answer is provided, the answering party shall state that the answer is partial or incomplete.

b. No part of an interrogatory or document request should be left unanswered merely because an objection is interposed to another part of the interrogatory or document request.

c. In cases where a party is represented by more than one attorney of record, no discovery motion, response or opposition should be filed unless a senior attorney of record has read the contents of the motion and any supporting memorandum and exhibits.

d. In accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5), where a claim of privilege is asserted objecting to any interrogatory, document request, or part thereof, and information is not provided on the basis of such assertion:

i. The party asserting the privilege shall, in the objection to the interrogatory, document request, or part thereof, identify with specificity the nature of the privilege (including work product) that is being claimed.

ii. The following information should be provided in the objection, if known or reasonably available, unless divulging such information would cause disclosure of the allegedly privileged information:

a. For oral communications:

(i) the name of the person making the communication and the names of persons present while the communication was made, and, where not apparent, the relationship of the persons present to the person making the communication;

(ii) the date and place of the communication; and

(iii) the general subject matter of the communication.

b. For documents:

(i) the type of document;

(ii) the general subject matter of the document;

(iii) the date of the document; and

(iv) such other information as is sufficient to identify the document, including, where appropriate, the author, addressee, custodian, and any other recipient of the document, and, where not apparent, the relationship of the author, addressee, custodian, and any other recipient to each other.

iii. The above information should be provided separately for each document for which privilege/protection is asserted, unless doing so would be excessively burdensome or expensive. In such instances, the party asserting privilege/protection should particularize why providing separate designations would be excessively burdensome or expensive, and then may identify by categories the voluminous documents or communications for which privilege/protection is asserted, providing the above information for each category. A party may only designate documents as privileged/protected by category if each document (1) is within the privilege/protection claimed, and (2) shares common characteristics such as sender, receiver, author, or specific subject matter. Where only part of a document or communication is privileged/protected, the unprivileged/unprotected portion should be disclosed if otherwise discoverable and within the scope of the discovery request.

iv. Reasonably promptly after receiving the information contained in Guideline 10.d.ii., the party seeking disclosure should notify the party from whom disclosure is sought of any deficiencies in the particularization of the basis for any privilege/protection asserted, including any “category designations” under Guideline 10.d.iii. Once done, the party from whom disclosure was sought shall, with reasonable promptness, provide sufficient factual information, including by affidavit, to establish the factual basis for each claim of privilege or protection that has been claimed. Failure to do so may result in a determination by the Court that the party asserting the privilege or work product protection has failed to particularize it as required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5), resulting in the waiver of any privilege/protection that has been claimed.

v. The parties are encouraged to confer and reach agreement regarding how to assert privilege/protection claims with respect to Email “chains” or “strings,” and if unable to do so, to bring to the attention of the Court their disagreement for prompt resolution.

e. If a party asserts in response to an interrogatory, request for production of documents, or request for admission of facts, that electronically stored information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost, within the meaning of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(2)(B), or otherwise asserts that requested discovery is unduly burdensome or expensive, the party making that assertion is expected to disclose, promptly and with particularity, the facts on which it relies to support that contention.

f. In addition to paper copies, parties are encouraged to exchange discovery requests and responses in a commonly-accepted word processing format, if requested, in order to reduce the clerical effort required to prepare responses and motions.

COMPENSATION GUIDELINES FOR PROFESSIONALS IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF MARYLAND

The following guidelines apply to professional fee applications in all bankruptcy pending before the Court. These guidelines apply to all professionals seeking compensation pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 327, 328, 330, and 331, including attorneys, accountants, examiners, investment bankers, and real estate advisors, unless the Court, in the order employing such professional or other order, provides otherwise. These guidelines set forth information to be contained in both interim and final applications for the approval of fees and expenses.

Although conformity to these guidelines will ensure that certain necessary information is included to assist the Court in its review of professional fee applications, it must be remembered that the following are guidelines only. Applications for compensation may vary from case to case, and each application must be reviewed on its own merits depending upon the facts and circumstances of the case. Familiarity with the adherence to the following guidelines will, it is hoped, promote the submission of more uniform professional fee applications containing adequate information and facilitate a meaningful review process and more expeditious action by the Court.

A. Format of Fee Applications

Federal Bankruptcy Rule 2016(a) sets forth certain requirements with respect to professional fee applications. The application should set forth a detailed statement of (1) the services rendered, (2) the time expended, (3) the expenses incurred, (4) the amounts requested, (5) the rates charged for such services, (6) how the services rendered were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the services were rendered toward the competition of, the case, (7) information relevant to a determination that the services performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance and nature of the problem, issue or task addressed, and (8) an affirmation that the compensation requested is reasonable based upon the customary compensation and reimbursement of expenses charged by the applicant and comparably skilled professionals in non-bankruptcy matters. In addition, applications should include a statement as to what payments have been made or promised to the applicant, the source of the compensation paid or promised, whether there is any sharing arrangement and the particulars as to any such sharing arrangement. Applications should also set forth the date the order approving the employment was entered and the dates of entry of any previous orders approving interim compensation to the applicant and the amounts of compensation previously approved. Finally, fee applications should include “lodestar” analysis and discussion of the factors identified in Johnson v. Georgia Highway Express, Inc., 448 F.2d 714 (5th Cir. 1974), and adopted by the Fourth Circuit in Barber v. Kimbrell’s Inc., 577 F.2d 216 (4th Cir. 1978), Anderson v. Morris, 658 F.2d 246 (4th Cir. 1978), and Harman v. Levin, 772 F.2d 1150 (4th Cir. 1985).

B. Description of Services Rendered and Time Expended.

Daily time sheets or a listing of daily time entries, in legible form, should be included in or attached to the application.¹ The time sheets or time entries should provide an itemized listing of all services performed by each professional and paraprofessional and the time spent on each matter. The applicable billing rate for each professional and paraprofessional should be stated.

Each professional and paraprofessional should record time in increments of tenths of an hour and keep contemporaneous time records. Time records should set forth in reasonable detail an appropriate narrative description of the services rendered. As a general rule, the description should identify the participants in and the length and nature of the activities undertaken. Examples of insufficient descriptions include “telephone call to X,” “conference with client,” “research,” “review of documents,” “review of pleadings,” and “correspondence.” Examples of satisfactory descriptions are set forth in footnote 3.

¹ Fee applications for matters handled on a contingent fee basis and applications required to the submitted pursuant to § 506(b) should also conform to the applicable format guidelines set forth herein.

The broad “lumping” of services, or the grouping of different tasks within one block of time, should generally be avoided in favor of more specific descriptions.² In recording time for each day, each professional and paraprofessional may describe in one entry the nature of the services rendered on a given task during that day and the aggregate time expended that day on such task, provided, however, that if the professional or paraprofessional works more than one hour on a task on any given day, the time record for that day should include internally, within the description of services for that day, the amount of time spent on each particular activity. A hypothetical time record complying with the foregoing is included below.³

The description of services required to be set forth is not intended to require the disclosure of privileged or confidential information, provided that if additional detail is required, the Court may direct that such additional information be furnished subject to appropriate protective conditions. Information set forth in a fee application does not operate as a waiver of any applicable privilege, including the attorney/client privilege or work product doctrine.

Charges for conferences between individuals in the same firm on the same case are not objectionable, if reasonable, necessary, and limited. Similarly, more than one professional may charge for attending a meeting or hearing on behalf of the same client if such attendance is reasonable, necessary, and limited. An explanation as to why more than one professional attended such a meeting or hearing may in certain circumstances be required, particularly if such multiple professional attendance does not appear to be reasonable in a particular situation.⁴

Ordinarily, time entries should be organized by tasks and presented chronologically. An applicant should either organize the time sheets or present a time entry listing by discrete tasks where an application covers multiple tasks undertaken by the applicant during the time period

² Notwithstanding the general prohibition of “lumping,” time entries for periods of one hour or less on a given day may be grouped together provided that a reasonable description of the services rendered within such time entry is provided.

³ A complying time entry would be:
“internal conference with X re cash collateral (.3); revise draft motion re cash collateral (.8); conf. Call with Y and Z re cash collateral hearing (.5); review documents re cash collateral motion (1.1); legal research re cash collateral hearing (.5)... Total Time 3.2” covered by the application. Within each task identified, the time entries of all timekeepers working on such tasks should appear chronologically. In addition, the application should include a summary by timekeeper of the time spent on each task, the billing value for each timekeeper, and a total billing amount for each task. Finally, the application should also include a brief narrative description as to why each task was undertaken, the current status thereof, and the results or benefits achieved to date.

It is not the intent of these guidelines to set forth a definitive listing of what tasks should be separately identified in each case or each professional fee application. However, where a discrete activity can reasonably be expected to continue over a period of at least three months and can reasonably be expected to constitute 10-20% or more of the fees to be sought for an interim period, the professional should present a separate chronological listing of time entries for such matter to the extent reasonably practicable. Examples of categories which might comprise separate tasks in a particular case are set forth below.⁵

Subject to Court approval, a trustee may employ himself or herself, or a firm with which the trustee is affiliated, as a professional. In such cases, applications for compensation should distinguish services rendered as trustee from those rendered by the professional seeking compensation.

Compensation sought for time spent traveling should describe the mode and time of travel, the necessity for travel and whether any substantive work was performed while traveling (e.g., preparing for hearing). If excessive or unreasonable, compensation for travel time may be reduced. If time is spent during travel working on other matters, such travel time should not also be billed to the bankruptcy case.

⁵ Sample Task Listing for Attorneys

- Asset analysis and recovery.
- Asset disposition/sales/leases/executory contracts.
- Business operations.
- Case administration.
- Claims administration and objections.
- Fee/employment applications and objections.
- Financing/cash collateral.
- Litigation [separately identify larger litigation matters as discrete tasks].
- Meetings of creditors.
- Plan and disclosure statement.

Compensation for time spent preparing fee applications is appropriate if reasonable. Compensation for the preparation of fee applications will be based on the level and skill reasonably required to prepare the application.

C. Reimbursement for Disbursements and Expenses.

Disbursements and expenses for which reimbursement is sought should be summarized in the fee application by category and any unusual items explained. Excessive charges will not be reimbursed. The following are guidelines with respect to some (but not necessarily all) of the categories of reimbursable disbursements and expenses:

Photocopying. The applicable charge for photocopying should be the actual cost of such copying not to exceed 20¢ per page or, if an outside service is used, the actual cost of such copying.

Facsimile Transmission. Charges for out-going facsimile transmission to long-distance telephone numbers are reimbursable at the lower of (i) toll charges or (ii) if such amount is not readily determinable, $1.25 per page for domestic and $2.50 per page for international transmissions. Charges for incoming facsimile transmissions are not reimbursable.

Mileage. The applicable charge for automobile mileage should not exceed the government approved rate, plus actual parking charges incurred.

Travel. The actual expenses incurred for out-of-town travel are reimbursable. However, first-class airfare, luxury accommodations and deluxe meals are not reimbursable, nor are personal or incidental charges unless necessary as a result of unforeseen circumstances.

Computerized Legal Research. Reasonable expenses may be charged for computerized legal research, including Lexis and Westlaw, provided that there is a description of the legal research undertaken and the charges do not exceed the actual cost to the attorney.

Postage, Telephone, Courier, and Freight. The cost of postage, freight, overnight delivery, courier services, and telephone toll charges may be reimbursable, if reasonably incurred. Charges for services such as messengers and overnight mail should not be incurred indiscriminately. Charges for local and cellular telephone services are not reimbursable. If normal, routine first-class postage is not customarily charged to other clients, then such postage would not be reimbursable; however, special postage charges or bulk mailing would ordinarily be reimbursable.

Court Costs. Court costs and disbursements are reimbursable.

Meals. Charges for meals are generally not reimbursable unless justified under appropriate circumstances or unless incurred as part of otherwise reimbursable out-of-town travel.

Overtime Charges. Overtime for non-professional and paraprofessional staff is reimbursable only if specifically justified in the application as necessary under the circumstances. Overtime charges for professional staff is not reimbursable.

Word Processing, Proofreading, Secretarial, and Other Staff Services. Daytime, ordinary business hour charges for word processing, proofreading, secretarial, library, and other staff services (exclusive of paraprofessional services) are generally considered office overhead items and, therefore, not reimbursable unless specifically justified in exceptional circumstances.

With respect to all disbursements and expenses for which reimbursement is sought, it must be understood that they must be of a kind and at a rate customarily charged to and collected from other clients and subject to the test of reasonableness under the circumstances of each case.

Each professional fee application in which the applicant is seeking reimbursement for expenses should include a statement that, with respect to expenses for which reimbursement is sought, the applicant is familiar with and has submitted the application in conformity with these guidelines.

D. Lodestar Analysis, Johnson Factors and Billing Judgment.

Each professional fee application should contain a “lodestar” analysis and discussion of the Johnson v. Georgia Highway Express, Inc., supra, factors, as adopted by the Fourth Circuit in Barber v. Kimbrell’s Inc., supra, including a statement as to the professional’s application of billing judgment to the compensation sought by such professional.

The “lodestar” analysis should include a summary listing the name of each professional and paraprofessional for whom compensation is sought, the number of hours worked by each identified individual, that individual’s hourly rate (which should not exceed such individual’s standard hourly rate in other bankruptcy and non-bankruptcy related matters), the total compensation sought for each such individual, and a total of all compensation sought for the period in question, before and after applying billing judgment to the compensation requested. A similar detailed summary of disbursements and expenses by category should also be presented.

The fee application should discuss the application of the twelve Johnson v. Georgia Highway Express, Inc. factors, to the extent that they apply in each particular case. Those factors may be summarized as follows:

1. the time and labor expended;
2. the novelty and difficulty of the questions raised;
3. the skill required to properly perform the professional services rendered;
4. the professionals' opportunity costs in pursuing the matter;
5. the customary fee for like work;
6. the professional's expectations as to the compensation at the outset of the matter;
7. the time limitations imposed by the client or circumstances;
8. the amount in controversy and the results obtained;
9. the experience, reputation, and ability of the professional;
10. the desirability or undesirability of the case within the professional community in which the case arose;
11. the nature and length of the professional relationship between the professional and client; and
12. professional fee awards in similar cases.

Not all of the foregoing twelve factors will be applicable to every fee application. However, they should be considered in the professional's exercise of billing judgment and discussed in the fee application. If a particular factor is not considered to be applicable, the application should so state. In addition, if the professional believes that other factors are relevant to the compensation requested, the foregoing list is not intended to be exhaustive. Professionals are encouraged to state all facts and circumstances that such professional believes to be relevant to the compensation requested.

In the final analysis, in making its determination with respect to a fee application and the amount of compensation to be awarded, the Court will consider the nature, the extent, and the value of the services rendered.

MARYLAND STATE BAR ASSOCIATION
CODE OF CIVILITY

In May 1997, the Maryland State Bar Association's Board of Governors approved the following aspirational Code of Civility for all lawyers and judges in Maryland. MSBA encourages all Maryland lawyers and judges to honor and voluntarily adhere to the standards set forth in these codes. Civility is the cornerstone of the legal profession.

LAWYERS' DUTIES

1. We will treat all participants in the legal process, in a civil, professional, and courteous manner and with respect at all times and in all communications, whether oral or written. These principles are intended to apply to all attorneys who practice law in the State of Maryland regardless of the nature of their practice. We will refrain from acting upon or manifesting racial, gender, or other bias or prejudice toward any participant in the legal process. We will treat all participants in the legal process with respect.
2. We will abstain from disparaging personal remarks or acrimony toward any participants in the legal process and treat everyone with fair consideration. We will advise our clients and witnesses to act civilly and respectfully to all participants in the legal process. We will, in all communications, speak and write civilly and respectfully to the Court, staff, and other court or agency personnel with an awareness that they, too, are an integral part of the judicial system.
3. We will not encourage any person under our control to engage in conduct that would be inappropriate under these standards if we were to engage in such conduct.
4. We will not bring the profession into disrepute by making unfounded accusations of impropriety or attacking counsel, and absent good cause, we will not attribute bad motives or improper conduct to other counsel.
5. We will strive for orderly, efficient, ethical and fair disposition of litigation, as well as disputed matters that are not yet the subject of litigation, and for the efficient, ethical, and fair negotiation and consummation of business transactions.
6. We will not engage in conduct that offends the dignity and decorum of judicial and administrative proceedings, bring disorder to the tribunal or undermines the image of the legal profession, nor will we allow clients or witnesses to engage in such conduct. We will educate clients and witnesses about proper courtroom decorum and to the best of our ability, prevent them from creating disorder or disruption in the courtroom.
7. We will not knowingly misrepresent, mischaracterize, or misquote fact or authorities cited.
8. We will be punctual and prepared for all scheduled appearances so that all matters may begin on time and proceed efficiently. Furthermore, we will also educate everyone involved concerning the need to be punctual and prepared, and if delayed we will notify everyone involved, if at all possible.
9. We will attempt to verify the availability of necessary participants and witnesses so we can promptly reschedule appearances if necessary.
10. We will avoid ex parte communications with the court, including the judge's staff, on pending matters in person (whether in social, professional or other contexts), by telephone, and in letters and other forms of written communication, unless authorized.

JUDGES' RESPONSIBILITIES

1. We will not use hostile, demeaning or humiliating words in opinions or in written or oral communications with lawyers, parties or witnesses.
2. We will be courteous, respectful and civil to lawyers, parties, witnesses, and court personnel. We will maintain control of all court proceedings, recognizing that judges have both the obligation and the authority to ensure that judicial proceedings are conducted with dignity, decorum and courtesy to all.
3. Within the practical limits of time, we will afford lawyers appropriate time to present proper arguments and to make a complete and accurate record.
4. We will make reasonable efforts to decide promptly all matters presented for decision.
5. We will be considerate of professional and personal time schedules of lawyers, parties, witnesses and court staff in scheduling hearings, meetings, and conferences, consistent with the efficient administration of justice.
6. We will be punctual in convening trials, hearings, meetings, and conferences; if they are not begun when scheduled; proper and prompt notification will be given.
7. We will inform counsel promptly of any rescheduling, postponement, or cancellation of hearings, meetings or conferences.
8. We will work cooperatively with all other judges and other jurisdictions with respect to availability of lawyers, witnesses, parties and court resources.
9. We will treat each other with courtesy and respect.
10. We will conscientiously assist and cooperate with other jurists to assure the efficient and expeditious processing of cases, while, when possible, accommodating the trial schedule of all lawyers, parties and witnesses.

CHAPTER 13 DEBTOR'S ATTORNEY RESPONSIBILITIES AND FEES

1. The following written notices must be provided to the debtor at the time of retention or included in the retainer agreement by and between the debtor and the debtor's attorney:

With the exception of adversary proceedings, appeals, and United States Trustee audits, for which separate arrangements may be made, the attorney must represent his or her client in all matters in the bankruptcy case as long as the attorney is attorney of record. This includes defending motions, including motions for relief from stay, and bringing objections to claims and prosecuting motions on behalf of the debtor. After the initial engagement, the attorney may not demand payments from the debtor as a precondition to doing the work. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Court may, upon prior application, allow the attorney to enter a limited appearance, including representation on a pro bono or reduced fee basis.

The attorney must remain attorney of record until one of the following conditions has been satisfied: a substitute attorney has entered an appearance and appears as attorney of record for the debtor, the entry of a Court order allowing the withdrawal of appearance, or the case is dismissed or closed. If the Court has approved a limited appearance, a motion to withdraw must be filed upon completion of the agreed upon scope of representation or the attorney must continue to represent the client. The failure to receive payment for services rendered or to be rendered may serve as the basis for the attorney filing a motion to withdraw. Any application to limit the scope of representation must include the client's acknowledgement.

2. The following fee arrangements are presumed reasonable under 11 U.S.C. § 329 and allowable under 11 U.S.C. § 330 and require no application or approval, except as stated below.

This presumption is rebuttable and the fee may be the subject of an order to justify the fee.

If no objection or order to justify fee is filed or entered, the presumptively reasonable fee is deemed allowed under 11 U.S.C. § 330 without the entry of an order. However, if an objection or order to justify fee is filed or entered, the burden is on debtor's attorney to prove that the fee should be allowed under 11 U.S.C. § 330 under the facts and circumstances of the case for which the fee is sought. The foregoing notwithstanding, any objection filed by a trustee or other party in interest must describe the asserted factual basis for rebutting the presumption.

A. A flat fee, not to exceed $5,300.00 for representation of the debtor for all matters in the main case. However, the attorney may by application (using Local Bankruptcy Form E-1) request approval of additional fees for work done upon matters that were not reasonably expected and that are extraordinary or for work done after ninety (90) days following the entry of the order confirming plan until representation ends.

B. A flat fee, not to exceed $6,800.00 for representation of the debtor for all matters in the main case. The attorney may by application (using Local Bankruptcy Form E-1) request approval of additional fees for work done upon matters that were not reasonably expected and that are extraordinary. An attorney otherwise waives all opportunity to apply for additional fees in the main case.

C. On April 1, 2025, and at each 3-year interval ending on April 1 thereafter, each dollar amount in effect in paragraphs 2A, and B of this Appendix immediately before such April 1 will be adjusted –

(1) to reflect the change in the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers, published by the Department of Labor, for the most recent 3-year period ending immediately before January 1 preceding such April 1, and

(2) to round to the nearest $25 the dollar number that represents such change.

Adjustments made in accordance with this paragraph do not apply to cases commenced before such adjustments.

3. All fees are subject to subsequent disgorgement upon an order of the Court. No plan or confirmation order bars by res judicata or otherwise the subsequent review and potential disgorgement of the fee, upon objection or order to justify fee and notice thereof.

4. Full compliance with Federal Bankruptcy Rule 2016(b) is required, including the filing of a Supplemental Disclosure on Local Form E-2 of additional funds received from any person, other than distributions from the trustee under a confirmed plan. The attorney must state in the Disclosure of Compensation filed pursuant to Federal Bankruptcy Rule 2016(b) whether the fee arrangement is one of the flat fees described in subparagraphs A, or B of paragraph 2 above, and, if so, which such fee arrangement applies.

5. Nothing in this Appendix F precludes, restricts, or prohibits the attorney from entering into fee arrangements different from those arrangements described in paragraph 2 above. The attorney must file an application for compensation in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code,

Federal Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Bankruptcy Rules for any fee arrangement that is different from the fee arrangements described in paragraph 2 above.

BANKRUPTCY DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROGRAM

The Court's Bankruptcy Dispute Resolution Program ("BDRP") includes mediation, negotiation, early neutral evaluation, and settlement facilitation. The specific method employed must be determined by the mediator (hereinafter the "Mediator") and parties.

- (a) Assignment of Matters to Mediation. The Court may refer a matter to mediation sua sponte, upon written stipulation, or upon motion by a party or the United States Trustee. See Local Bankruptcy Form J-1. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, participation in mediation is voluntary.
- (b) Matters Subject to Mediation. The Court may assign to mediation any dispute arising in an adversary proceeding or contested matter in a bankruptcy case, except those relating to employment of professionals, objections to discharge under 11 U.S.C. § 727, and matters involving contempt or sanctions.
- (c) Mediator Qualifications. Absent Court order directing otherwise, the Mediator must have sufficient qualifications based on training or experience. For training, the Mediator must have successfully completed at least forty (40) hours of mediation training sponsored by a nationally recognized bankruptcy organization or at least forty (40) hours of basic mediation training in a program meeting the requirements of Maryland Rule 17-104 or former Maryland Rule 17-106. For experience, the Mediator must have ten (10) or more years of professional experience in the insolvency field and participated in five (5) or more mediations as mediator or attorney for a party.
- (d) Selection of Mediator. The parties may select a mutually acceptable Mediator. If the parties cannot agree, the presiding judge must select a Mediator.

- (e) Disqualification of Mediator. A Mediator must promptly determine and disclose all conflicts or potential conflicts. Any person selected as a Mediator must be disqualified where 28 U.S.C. § 455 would require disqualification if that person were a judge.
- (f) Compensation. Unless otherwise agreed by the Court, the parties, and the Mediator, a Mediator must be compensated at the Mediator's normal and customary hourly rates or upon such rates as agreed to by the Mediator and the parties. The Mediator must also be reimbursed for any out of pocket expenses associated with the mediation. Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, all fees and expenses must be split equally among the parties to the mediation. If the Court determines that a party assigned to mediation cannot afford to pay the fees and costs of the Mediator, the Court may appoint the Mediator to serve pro bono as to that party. Court approval of the reasonableness of fees and reimbursement of expenses is required only if the estate is to be charged for some or all of the Mediator's compensation and the estate's portion exceeds $25,000, or if less than $25,000 but the estate representative objects to the fees sought from the estate.
- (g) Deadlines. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the referral of a matter to mediation does not operate to stay, postpone, or extend any deadlines.
- (h) Dispute Resolution Procedures. The Mediator must schedule a time and place for the mediation conference (or other dispute resolution method) that is acceptable to the parties and the Mediator. The Mediator must determine if a pre-mediation written submission (hereinafter the "Submission") by the parties is necessary or appropriate and must direct the parties as to the form and nature of any such Submission. All individual parties, and representatives with authority to negotiate and to settle the dispute on behalf of parties other than individuals, must attend the mediation conference unless excused by the - Mediator. If the parties resolve their dispute before or during the mediation conference, they must prepare an appropriate written stipulation, and where required by the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable law, they must promptly submit the fully executed stipulation to the Court for approval.

- (i) Administration of BDRP. The Clerk of Court or his designee (the “BDRP Administrator”) must administer the BDRP, track and compile BDRP results, and handle such other administrative duties as necessary.
 - (j) Confidentiality. All written and oral communications made in connection with or during any mediation conference, including any written Submissions, are subject to Federal Rule of Evidence 408. No such communication may be used in any proceeding for any purpose and may only be disclosed upon written agreement of all parties to the mediation and the Mediator.
 - (k) Report of Mediation. As soon as practicable, but no later than thirty (30) days after the conclusion of the mediation conference (or other alternative dispute resolution method), the Mediator must file with the Court a Report of Mediator, advising of the date(s) that the parties conducted the mediation, the parties in attendance at the mediation, and whether the parties resolved the matter (Local Bankruptcy Form J-2, “Report of Mediator”). In addition, the Mediator must submit to the BDRP Administrator only a report regarding the mediation conference (Local Bankruptcy Form J-3, “Report to BDRP Administrator”). The Report of BDRP Conference is confidential and must not be disclosed to the mediation participants or filed in the main bankruptcy case or adversary proceeding.

- (1) Immunity. Aside from proof of actual fraud or other willful misconduct, the Mediator must be immune from claims arising out of acts or omissions incident or related to service as a Mediator appointed by the Court. Appointed Mediators are judicial officers, provided the same immunities as judges in Title 28 of the United States Code.

I. DEFINITIONS

There are two categories of electronic users¹ – filing user and web filing user.

Unrepresented parties may not electronically file documents using CM/ECF. They must file documents in paper at the Clerk's Office or, for initial filings in Chapter 7 cases only, utilize the Electronic Self Representation (eSR) module available on the Court's website.

- A. Filing User – A person with a PACER account that is linked to the Court's CM/ECF filing system to file documents electronically. There are three types of Filing Users: Full Participants, Filing Agents, and Creditor Designees.
1. Full Participants – Attorneys in good standing admitted to the Bar of this Court (including those admitted pro hac vice), attorneys representing the United States Government, United States Trustees and their assistants, and bankruptcy trustees may register as Filing Users of the Court's CM/ECF system. Full Participants may also choose to designate staff to act as Filing Agents with the authority to file electronically on behalf of the Full Participant.
 2. Filing Agents – A Filing User who can file only on behalf of attorneys or trustees who are Full Participants.
 3. Creditor Designee – A Filing User who is eligible to file only proofs of claim, transfers of claim, withdrawals of claim, requests for notice, requests for preferred address, reaffirmation agreements, Notices of Mortgage Payment Change, and Notices of Postpetition Mortgage Fee, Expenses, and Charges. (See Section XIII).
- B. Web Filing User – One who is filing a proof of claim electronically via the Court's web page. No login or password is required to file a proof of claim. (See Section XIV).

II. LOGINS AND PASSWORDS

- A. In General. A Filing User's PACER login and password must be used to access CM/ECF. Users are prohibited from sharing their passwords, must protect the security of their logins and passwords, and if the login or password is compromised must immediately notify the Court's Help Desk by phone or email to prevent unauthorized access. A Full Participant's support staff may obtain individual logins as Filing Agents via PACER.

¹ Previously, the Court offered Non-Filing User accounts solely for the purpose of receiving email notifications of case activity. Non-Filing Users have not waived the right to personal service or the right to receive notice by first-class mail. While some legacy Non-Filing User accounts may exist, new Non-Filing User accounts cannot be created.

- B. Prior to Registering – All Filing Users must have an individual PACER account, which may be obtained at www.pacer.gov.
- C. Requesting Access via PACER – To register and apply for a Filing User account in CM/ECF, an applicant must submit an E-File Registration request via PACER under Manage My Account Login. For instructions to request e-filing privileges through PACER, visit the PACER website at www.pacer.gov.
- D. Local Forms and Training Requirements – Full Participants and Creditor Designees must complete and submit the Court’s local registration forms, available on the Court’s website at <https://www.mdb.uscourts.gov/for-attorneys/training-and-registration-for-electronic-filing>. Full Participants who have not filed electronically in another bankruptcy court must complete an online training course before submitting the Court’s local registration form. The training materials are available on the Court’s website at <https://www.mdb.uscourts.gov/for-attorneys/attorney-registration-training-course-required>. Full Participants who have filed electronically in another bankruptcy court must complete the local registration form that includes a Training Waiver certifying that the Filing User is a registered user in another bankruptcy court and is familiar with this Court’s Local Bankruptcy Rules, appendices, and administrative orders.
- E. Notice – Waiver and Consent – Creditor Designees and Full Participants must maintain a current email address. Registration as a Full Participant constitutes: (1) waiver of the right to receive notice by first-class mail and consent to receive notice electronically, and (2) waiver of the right to service by personal service or first-class mail and consent to electronic service. Waiver of service and/or notice by first-class mail applies to notice of entry of an order or judgment under Federal Bankruptcy Rule 9022 and to the additional three (3) days for responding to pleadings under Federal Bankruptcy Rule 9006(f).
- F. Withdrawal – Once registered, a Filing User may withdraw from participation in CM/ECF by submitting a deactivation request via PACER. Upon receipt, the Filing User’s login must be disabled and the Filing User’s name must be deleted from the electronic service list.

III. FILING

A. Effect of Filing Electronically

- 1. Transmission Constitutes Filing – Electronic transmission of a document to the CM/ECF system consistent with these procedures, together with the transmission of a Notice of Electronic Filing from the Court, constitutes filing of the document for all purposes of the Federal Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Bankruptcy Rules and constitutes entry of the document on the docket kept by the Clerk under Federal Bankruptcy Rule 5003.
- 2. Binding Effect on Filing Party – When a document has been filed electronically, the official record is the electronic recording of the document as stored by the Clerk. A document filed electronically is deemed filed at the date and time stated on the Notice of Electronic Filing from the Court.

3. Deadlines – Electronic filing of a document does not alter the deadline for filing that document. Except where the presiding judge specifically requires an earlier filing time, filing must be completed before midnight local time where the Court is located to be considered timely filed that day. All references to time contained in these Electronic Case Filing Procedures are to Eastern Standard Time or Eastern Daylight Time, whichever is applicable at the time of filing.

B. Filing Requirements in CM/ECF

1. In General – Except as expressly provided in Section VI of these procedures, and in exceptional circumstances which prevent a Filing User from transmitting a pleading or other document using CM/ECF, all pleadings or other documents required to be filed with the Clerk in connection with a case assigned to CM/ECF must be filed as follows:
 - a. Filing Users must transmit all pleadings or other documents electronically using CM/ECF. If a Filing User transmits a document other than electronically using CM/ECF, the document must be accompanied by an affidavit stating why the document is not prepared or filed electronically. The Court may strike a document if the affidavit does not set forth sufficient cause for the non-compliance.
 - b. Only parties without legal representation may file pleadings and other documents by paper.
2. Technical Problems – If the CM/ECF system is inaccessible due to Court technical problems, the Court must accept alternate means of filing, notice of which must be posted on the Court’s website. If the Filing User is having technical problems, it is the Filing User’s responsibility to arrange for timely filing by other means.
3. PDF Requirements – The system cannot accommodate documents that do not meet the Court’s formatting requirements. The current formatting requirements can be found on the Court’s website at <https://www.mdb.uscourts.gov/for-attorneys/cmecf-login-info>, labeled “NextGen PDF Requirements.”
4. Fees – Fees payable to the Clerk for filings that require a fee must be made in one of the forms authorized by Local Bankruptcy Rule 1006-1.

IV. ORDERS

- A. Validity and Effect – All orders, decrees, judgments, and proceedings of the Court must be entered in accordance with these procedures and must satisfy the requirements of Federal Bankruptcy Rules 5003 and 9021.

B. Required Submission and Form – All requests for relief, except motions for relief from the automatic stay, motions to dismiss or convert, Chapter 13 plans, motions to modify Chapter 13 plans, and pleadings initiating adversary proceedings under Federal Bankruptcy Rule 7001, must be accompanied by a proposed order that conforms to the requirements of Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-3. Such orders must be filed as an attachment to the pleading and must be uploaded directly to the Court through CM/ECF. Orders that are submitted other than with the pleading, such as consent orders and orders embodying a ruling, also must be uploaded directly to the Court through CM/ECF.

1. Proposed Orders –

All orders submitted electronically must conform to the following specifications:

- a. The top margin on the first page must be no less than three (3) inches.
- b. The title must be descriptive of the relief to be ordered.
- c. The order must include a service list with the names and addresses of each party served with the motion. If a recipient will be served through CM/ECF, that person must be listed with the statement that service is via CM/ECF.
- d. The last line in the proposed order must state “End of Order,” and it must be centered in the middle of the line and in bold lettering to signify the end of the order.
- e. There must not be a signature line for the judge. The judge will electronically sign the document in the blank space provided by the top margin on the first page.
- f. Multi-page orders must contain page numbers at the bottom center of each page.

2. Stipulations and Consent Orders –

- a. Consent orders must be circulated and contain an original signature as set forth in Local Bankruptcy Rule 9011-3(c)(1). The original consent order bearing original signatures of the consenting parties must be maintained by the Filing User until three (3) years after the bankruptcy case is closed.
- b. The name (in the form appearing on the original) of each party executing the stipulation or proposed consent order must be printed at the end of the text, preceded by /s/ to evidence an original signature. See Section IX below.
- c. Attorneys submitting proposed consent orders must include the following certification of consent:

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the terms of the copy of the consent order submitted to the Court are identical to those set forth in the original consent order; and the signatures represented by the /s/ _____ on this copy reference the signatures of consenting parties on the original consent order.

- V. ATTACHMENTS AND EXHIBITS TO PLEADINGS AND PROOFS OF CLAIM
Filing Users must submit in electronic form all documents referenced as exhibits or attachments unless the Court authorizes alternative filing. A Filing User must submit as exhibits or attachments only those excerpts of the referenced documents that are directly germane to the matter under consideration by the Court. Excerpted material must be clearly and prominently identified as such. Filing Users who file excerpts of documents as exhibits or attachments under this section do so without prejudice to their right to timely file additional excerpts or the complete document. Responding parties may timely file additional excerpts or the complete document that they believe are directly germane to the matter under consideration by the Court.
- VI. TRIAL EXHIBITS – EXCEPTIONS TO ELECTRONIC CASE FILING
Trial exhibits must be filed in accordance with Local Bankruptcy Rule 7016-1 unless otherwise authorized by chambers. For additional guidance, refer to chambers' webpages: <https://www.mdb.uscourts.gov/judges-info>.
- VII. SENSITIVE DOCUMENTS
- A. Sealed Documents – Any party who seeks to file documents under seal must file a motion to that effect. The proposed sealed documents must be filed separately from the motion, as sealed documents for a motion to seal, in accordance with the CM/ECF User Manual. The CM/ECF User Manual is located on the Court's website here: <https://www.mdb.uscourts.gov/files/ECF%20Manual%202021-3-09.pdf>. Sealed documents cannot be served through CM/ECF; parties must serve sealed documents through other appropriate means. Sealed documents are not accessible or viewable in CM/ECF.
- B. Highly Sensitive Documents – Highly sensitive documents contain information so sensitive and confidential that additional precautions beyond sealing the document from public view on the Court's CM/ECF system is required. To safeguard those documents appropriately, they must be filed in paper and not through CM/ECF. Factors used to determine whether a document constitutes a Highly Sensitive Document include whether a case involves: national security; foreign sovereign interests; criminal activity related to cybersecurity; intellectual property, trade secrets, or sensitive commercial information likely to be of interest to foreign powers; terrorism; investigation of public officials; or the reputational interests of the United States. The following types of documents are generally not considered highly sensitive: Social Security records, administrative immigration records, information about minors, documents related to domestic abuse, and most other sealed filings in bankruptcy cases. For additional information and instructions, visit the Court's webpage on Highly Sensitive Documents here: <https://www.mdb.uscourts.gov/for-attorneys/highly-sensitive-documents-special-procedures>.

- C. Writs – Requests for the issuance of a writ in aid of collection or recovery of property must be filed electronically. The request is a private entry which prevents it from being viewed by parties. This status must be changed to a public docket entry when one of the following events occur: (1) thirty (30) days have passed since the issuance of the writ; (2) a certificate of service of the writ has been filed; or (3) an answer to the writ is filed.

VIII. REQUIRED RETENTION OF ORIGINAL DOCUMENTS

Original documents must be retained in accordance with Local Bankruptcy Rule 9011-3.

IX. SIGNATURES

- A. In General – All pleadings, other papers, and documents filed electronically must evidence the signature by placing “/s/ [Filing User’s Name]” where the original signature occurs.
- B. CM/ECF System – Use of the Filing User’s login and password on the CM/ECF system constitutes the Filing User’s signature for all purposes for documents which must contain original signatures.
- C. Consistency – Other than party affidavits, client signatures, and consent documents, the electronic signature on the pleading must match the name of the Filing User. The signature on a pleading filed by a Filing Agent must match the name of the Filing User on whose behalf it was filed.
- D. Attorneys – Attorneys must comply with Federal Bankruptcy Rule 9011 and Local Bankruptcy Rule 9011-1.

X. SERVICE OF DOCUMENTS

- A. *Automatic Service by the CM/ECF System on Registered Participants*² – Upon filing of any pleading, the CM/ECF system must send a “Notice of Electronic Filing” to all Filing Users who have entered an appearance or requested notice in that case, and the confirmation received by the filing parties must contain a list of all parties receiving such notice.

² Debtors who register for electronic noticing via DeBN are not “Registered Participants” and do not receive a Notice of Electronic Filing. Debtors must be served with paper copies of documents unless otherwise authorized by the Court.

- B. *Confirmed Transmission Constitutes Service*³ – Electronic transmission of the Notice of Electronic Filing constitutes service or notice of the filed document on a Filing User. A party filing electronically is not otherwise required to serve the pleading or other document on any party who is a registered CM/ECF participant and has consented to electronic notice.
- C. Service on Parties Not Consenting to Electronic Notice – Unless otherwise ordered by the Court and except as set forth in Local Bankruptcy Rule 9036-1, the party filing a pleading or other document must serve by first-class mail, postage pre-paid, all parties in interest who have not consented to electronic notice or service in accordance with section II.E.
- D. Service of a Summons or Subpoena – A party in interest serving a summons under Federal Bankruptcy Rule 7004 or a subpoena under Federal Bankruptcy Rule 9016 must also serve such summons or subpoena in paper form. Return of service may be filed electronically.

XI. NOTICE OF COURT ORDERS AND JUDGMENTS

- A. Entry of Court Orders and Judgments – Upon entry of an order or judgment, the Clerk must transmit a Notice of Electronic Filing to Filing Users who have entered an appearance or requested notice in the case.
- B. Transmission Constitutes Notice – Electronic transmission of the Notice of Electronic Filing constitutes the notice required by Federal Bankruptcy Rule 9022.

XII. PUBLIC ACCESS

- A. Public Access at the Court – Access to the electronic docket and documents filed in the CM/ECF system is available to the public at no charge at each Divisional Office of the Clerk during regular business hours.
- B. Internet Access – There are two forms of Internet Access: CM/ECF access for filing and PACER access for viewing documents. Full Participants and Creditor Designees use their PACER logins to access CM/ECF to file documents electronically. Any party may obtain a PACER login to view documents electronically. A PACER login may be obtained at <http://pacer.gov>. PACER logins apply to all federal courts.
- C. Limited Access; Privacy – Any person may apply by motion for an order limiting electronic access to, excusing, or prohibiting the electronic filing of certain specifically identified materials on the grounds that such material is subject to privacy interests and that electronic access or electronic filing is likely to prejudice those privacy interests.

³ Previously, the Court offered Non-Filing User accounts solely for the purpose of receiving email notifications of case activity. Legacy Non-Filing Users will receive the Notice of Electronic Filing but have not waived the right to personal service or the right to receive notice by first-class mail.

- D. Paper Copies and Certified Copies – Paper copies and certified copies of electronically filed documents may be purchased at the Office of the Clerk. The fee for copying and certification must be in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1930.

XIII. PROCEDURES FOR ELECTRONIC FILING OF DOCUMENTS BY CREDITOR’S DESIGNEE

- A. Application – Creditors and their designees who electronically file proofs of claim, transfers of claim, reaffirmation agreements, Notices of Mortgage Payment Change, or Notices of Postpetition Mortgage Fees, Expenses, and Charges pursuant to Federal Bankruptcy Rule 3002.1, must comply with the procedures in this section.
- B. Form of Proof of Claim – Each proof of claim must conform to Official Form 410 with respect to the information requested by that form, subject to the instructions concerning attachments below. Proofs of claim that are filed electronically must be text documents in PDF format (not scanned or imaged documents). By electronically filing the proof of claim or transfer of claim with a “/s/” representation of signature, the Creditor Designee or creditor certifies the accuracy of the claim and that it is filed in good faith. The proof of claim form must include the following statement from Official Form 410: “A person who files a fraudulent claim could be fined up to $500,000, imprisoned up to five (5) years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 157 and 3571.”
- C. Form of Transfer of Claim – A transfer of claim must state the claim number of the proof of claim for each transferred claim.
- D. Attachments – Any document filed as an exhibit to a proof of claim must be excerpted to include only the portion minimally necessary to support the claim. Only those portions of documents may be attached that evidence the amount of the claim and demonstrate the claimant’s interest, i.e., a note and critical portions of deeds, mortgages, and security agreements. Examples include pages containing recording information, parties to the instrument, signatures, grants of liens or security interests, collateral descriptions, and summaries of accounts rather than copies of invoices. Exhibits must be prominently identified as an excerpt and the creditor must make the original exhibit available in its entirety upon request by a party or the Court. Creditors filing excerpts of exhibits pursuant to this procedure do so without prejudice to their right to file additional exhibits or unedited exhibits.
- E. Signatures; Authorization; Representations – No person or entity may cause a proof of claim, transfer of claim, or reaffirmation agreement to be filed electronically without the express authorization of the individual whose signature appears on the document for the entity on whose behalf the document is being filed. The name of the signatory on the pleading must be typed beneath the signature line.
- F. Creditor Designee – The Creditor Designee is the individual who authorizes the filing of a proof of claim, transfer of claim, or reaffirmation agreement. The “/s/” representation of the Creditor Designee constitutes that person’s signature for purposes of Federal Bankruptcy Rule 9011 and 18 U.S.C. §§ 152 and 3751. The signature of the Creditor Designee must appear on every document filed electronically on behalf of the Creditor, by placing “/s/ [Name of Creditor Designee]” on the signature line.

G. Electronic Filing of Pleadings – Representations to the Court – In filing a document, the Creditor Designee certifies that:

1. The creditor designee is authorized to file the document by the entity on whose behalf the document is being filed;
2. The creditor is the same entity stated on that individual’s application to use the CM/ECF system; and
3. The information in the filed document is true and correct within the meaning of Federal Bankruptcy Rule 9011.

XIV. PROCEDURES FOR ELECTRONICALLY FILING PROOFS OF CLAIM (ePOC)

- A. In General – Proofs of claim forms for all chapters may be filed electronically via the ePOC system on the Court’s website. No login or password is required. Further information about ePOC and instructions for using it are located on the Court’s web site at <https://www.mdb.uscourts.gov/for-attorneys/e-poc>.
- B. Rule 3002.1 Notices – Notices of Mortgage Payment Change (Supplement 1) and Notices of Postpetition Mortgage Fees, Expenses, and Charges (Supplement 2) filed pursuant to Federal Bankruptcy Rule 3002.1 must be filed through CM/ECF and not through ePOC.

COMPLEX CHAPTER 11 CASE PROCEDURES

To facilitate administrative and procedural efficiencies in complex Chapter 11 cases in this Court, these Complex Chapter 11 Case Procedures (the “Procedures”) are effective September 1, 2021, and supersede in all respects Administrative Order No. 02-03. The Procedures are mandatory in all Complex Chapter 11 Cases (as defined herein) and optional in all other Chapter 11 cases, including cases under Subchapter V of Chapter 11. A debtor in a non-Complex Chapter 11 Case may elect to proceed under these Procedures by filing a notice of such election contemporaneously with its Chapter 11 petition (“Notice of Application of Complex Chapter 11 Case Procedures”).

1. Definition of a Complex Chapter 11 Case. A “Complex Chapter 11 Case” is a case filed by a debtor or group of affiliated debtors in which: (a) the total liabilities of the debtor or all affiliated debtors are more than $10 million; (b) there are a total of more than 50 creditors listed in the schedules of the debtor or all affiliated debtors; or (c) a portion of the debt or equity securities of the debtor or any one of the affiliated debtors is publicly traded.
2. Notice of Designation of Complex Chapter 11 Case. A debtor filing a Complex Chapter 11 Case or a debtor filing a Chapter 11 case with an election to proceed under the Procedures must file the attached Notice of Application of Complex Chapter 11 Procedures contemporaneously with the petition in a voluntary Chapter 11 case. If the petition is filed under 11 U.S.C. § 303, the Notice of Application of Complex Chapter 11 Procedures must be filed by the petitioning creditors or the alleged debtor within fourteen (14) days of the service of the petition.

3. Advance Notice Regarding Filing of Complex Chapter 11 Case. To the extent practicable, when a prospective debtor filing a Complex Chapter 11 Case or a Chapter 11 case (including a Subchapter V case) with an election to proceed under the Procedures anticipates a need for immediate relief, the debtor's attorney must contact the United States Trustee and the Clerk prior to filing any voluntary petition for relief under Chapter 11 for the purpose of advising the United States Trustee and the Clerk of the anticipated filing (without disclosing the identity of the debtor) and the matters on which the debtor intends to seek immediate relief.
4. Master Service List. The debtor must maintain a consolidated master service list identifying the parties that must be served with motions and other papers filed in the case. Unless otherwise required by the Bankruptcy Code, Federal Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Bankruptcy Rules, or Court order, notices of motions and all other papers may be limited to those on the master service list. That list must include: (a) the debtor; (b) the debtor's secured creditors; (c) the debtor's 20 largest unsecured creditors, unless and until an unsecured creditors' committee is appointed (in which event, service must be directed to the attorney for the unsecured creditors' committee); (d) those persons filing a notice of appearance and request for service in the case; (e) the Office of the United States Trustee and, to the extent required by the Bankruptcy Code, Federal Bankruptcy Rules, or Local Bankruptcy Rules, all governmental agencies; and (f) any known attorney for those identified in subsections (a)-(e). Parties on the master service list represented by an attorney who entered his or her appearance will be served through the CM/ECF notification system. All other parties on the master service list must be served, at the server's option, by email or regular mail. The debtor must file the initial

- master service list within three (3) days of filing the Chapter 11 petition and must file an updated master service list as necessary to reflect changes to any party's information.
5. First Day Motions and First Day Hearing. The debtor may file a request for an emergency hearing on motions commonly referred to as “first day motions” in Chapter 11 cases. These motions may include requests for approval of debtor in possession financing, use of cash collateral, payment of prepetition employee wages and benefits, payment of critical vendors and suppliers, payment of trust fund taxes, and other similar requests. The debtor may request a hearing date from the courtroom deputy for the presiding judge upon the filing of the Chapter 11 petition, and such hearing may be set upon at least twenty-four (24) hours' notice (unless emergent circumstances require a shorter period) to the parties identified on the master service list, to the extent practicable and with a preference for service by email. The presiding judge will determine whether to grant any such requested relief and whether to do so on an interim, conditional, or permanent basis.
 6. General Motions Practice and Hearing Dates. The debtor may request from the courtroom deputy for the presiding judge a list of omnibus hearing dates for the case. Motions and other matters that do not require an emergency hearing must be noticed for a hearing date at least twenty-one (21) days after notice is served. The debtor may request an emergency hearing on any motion by filing an expedited hearing request using the Court's form Motion to Shorten Time or Request for Expedited Hearing. The Court will endeavor to review and set emergency hearing dates as promptly as practicable.

APPENDIX I

7. Hearing Participation and Procedures. Any party may request to appear at a hearing by telephone or video conference. Any such request must be made to the courtroom deputy for the presiding judge at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the hearing date, absent exigent circumstances. All parties must review the presiding judge's hearing and evidentiary protocols on the Court's website prior to participating in any hearing before the judge. The presiding judge may, in the judge's discretion, deny a request to participate by telephone or video conference if the judge determines that the party's appearance in person is required or would be beneficial to the proceeding.
8. Continuances and Automatic Bridge Order. Any continuance or adjournment of a scheduled hearing may be done by consent of the movant and any party filing a responsive paper, provided that the continuance or adjournment is coordinated with the courtroom deputy for the presiding judge by email with a copy to all anticipated hearing participants. A party may otherwise file a motion for a continuance or adjournment in accordance with Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-7. In addition, unless otherwise provided by the Bankruptcy Code, Federal Bankruptcy Rules, Local Bankruptcy Rules, or a Court order, if a motion is filed that complies with Federal Bankruptcy Rule 9006 to enlarge the time to take any action before the expiration of the period prescribed by the Bankruptcy Code, Federal Bankruptcy Rules, Local Bankruptcy Rules, or a Court order, the time for taking the action is automatically extended until the Court rules on the motion.
9. Proofs of Claim and Omnibus Claim Objection Procedures. Unless otherwise set by Court order, the bar date for the filing of proofs of claim is (a) one hundred eighty (180) days after the petition date for governmental units; and (b) as set forth in Local

- Bankruptcy Rule 3003-1 for all other entities. Parties may file a motion to approve procedures for handling omnibus claims objections. Such procedures may not shift the burden of proof, discovery rights or burdens, or pleadings requirements.
10. Cash Collateral and Financing Orders. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the debtor must comply with Local Bankruptcy Rule 4001-5 as applicable, and the motion must include the provisions required to be highlighted by Local Bankruptcy Rule 4001-5, as well as any provisions setting milestones relating to a sale or a plan.
 11. Motions to Sell Assets or Set Sale Procedures. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, any motion to sell assets or set sale procedures must comply with Local Bankruptcy Rules 6004-3 and 6004-4, as applicable, and the motion must include the provisions required to be highlighted by those Rules. The debtor may request to have any motion to sell assets set for hearing on an expedited basis, provided that adequate notice of the request to expedite and the motion to sell assets is provided to all potential parties in interest. Any sale procedures motion must provide for input from or consultation with any statutory committee of creditors and secured creditors with liens against the property being sold. Notwithstanding the foregoing, secured creditors or committee members who are potential bidders may not participate in the adoption or implementation of sale procedures and may not receive information that is not generally available to all potential bidders.
 12. Disclosure Statement and Plan Confirmation. A plan proponent may propose to combine the disclosure statement and plan into a single document. The plan proponent also may file a motion requesting: (a) conditional approval of the disclosure statement; (b) approval of solicitation procedures; (c) the scheduling of a hearing on shortened

- notice to consider conditional approval of the proposed disclosure statement; and
- (d) the scheduling of a joint hearing to consider final approval of the adequacy of the disclosure statement and confirmation of the proposed plan.
13. Mediation. The Court may order mediation of any dispute arising in an adversary proceeding, contested matter, or otherwise. Parties may agree to mediate any dispute without Court approval. No matter may be mediated by a sitting judge without first obtaining an order from the Court. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the mediation of a matter does not delay or stay discovery, pretrial hearing dates, or trial dates. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court or agreed by the parties, any fees and costs of the mediator must be shared equally by the parties.
14. Revision and Application of Federal Bankruptcy and Local Bankruptcy Rules. These Procedures may be revised periodically. Unless otherwise provided herein, the Federal Bankruptcy Rules and Local Bankruptcy Rules continue to apply in all Complex Chapter 11 Cases (and those non-Complex Chapter 11 Cases utilizing these Procedures by election).
